FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE CAPITAL.

The Late Secretary of War—Remains Laid in State in War Department—Departments Closed—Funeral Arrangements—Liquor Dealers' National Convention.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, September 7, 1869

LYING IN STATE.

The body of Secretary Rawlins was removed to the War Department this morning and lies in state in General Sherman's rooms, attended by a military guard. All the military departments, including the Executive Mansion, are draped in mourning and the interior of the War Department festooned with black and national flags and crape. Public business is entirely suspended in the War Department, and the national flags over all the departments and elsewhere throughout the city are at half-mast.

DEPARTMENTS TO BE CLOSED.

The following is a copy of the letter sent to the heads of the departments of Government to-day by order of the President:

Department of State, September 7, 1869.—It is my melancholy duty to inform you that Hon. John A. Rawlins, Secretary of War, departed this life at twenty minutes past four o'clock yesterday afternoon. In consequence of this afflicting event, the President directs that the Executive departments of the Government be careful to manifest every observance of honor which custom has established as appropriate to the memory of one so eminent as a public functionary and so distinguished as a citizen.

[Signed] HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

In accordance with the above, the several Secretaries have addressed letters to the heads of bureaus under them suspending business to-morrow and on Thursday until after the obsequies shall have been concluded.

Gov. Walker, with prominent Virginians, will participate in the funeral ceremonies.

No order has yet been made naming a Secretary of War ad interum, but from what the President said last night it is probable Gen. Sehrman will be appointed act until the vacancy can be filled.

THE REMOVAL OF THE REMAINS.

When the body of the late Secretary Rawlins was removed to the War Department this morning, Gen. Sherman and Adjutant General Townsend were present, and under their direction a guard was stationed at each end of the catafalque, and also at the entrance to the room. During the day a large number of persons visited the War Department to take a last look at the features of the deceased, included among whom were members of the Cabinet, army and navy officers and many civilians and ladies of note. The remains will lie in state until the time of the funeral and the War Department kept open to afford the public an opportunity to see them.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

The funeral escort will consist of four companies of artillery. a battalion of marines, Company K, 5th Cavalry and Battery F 5th artillery.

The interment takes place Thursday forenoon. A large number of military officers have been designated as pall bearers by the President.

AT THE EXECUTIVE MANSION.

The President was at his office in the Executive Mansion, where he received and consulted with Secretaries Fish, Cox. Robeson and acting Secretary Richardson in relation to arrangements for the funeral obsequies of the late Secretary of War. The President was suffering from an attack of neuralgia.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION OF LIQUOR DEALERS.

The Liquor Dealers' Association of this city have addressed a circular to the liquor dealers throughout the country proposing to hold a National Convention here in December, and requesting delegates to be sent. The circular says the Temperance Convention just closed in Chicago, has, among its objects, the adoption of a prohibitory law in this District, an experiment which, if successful, will affect the trade throughout the United States. The purpose of the proposed convention is to influence Congress to defeat any such measure.

SECRETARY OF WAR.

It is stated that General Sherman will act as Secretary of War, ad interim. The name of Major General Greenville M. Dodge, late of the Army of Tennessee, and at present Chief Engineer of the Union Pacific Railroad, is prominently mentioned in connection with the succession to the office.

JUDGMENT OBTAINED.

Supervisor Drummond, of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and Dekota, in the case of the distillery of J. C. McCoy, seized by him some time ago near Iowa City, has obtained a judgment for forfeiture.

SENATOR FESSENDEN,

A private dispatch to Commissioner Delano states of Senator Fessenden, that his symptoms are more favorable and some hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The Water Famine at Philadelphia.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—At two o'clock this afternoon, connections having been completed at the Fairmount water works, the pumps of the fire and wrecking steamer John Fuller were set to work discharging their full capacity, eight thousand gallons per minute, into the reservoir. Chief Engineer Graff to day raised the blockade of the Schuylkill Navigation Company and thirty boats have been passed through, thus opening navigation, which had been suspended since August 14th.

Circus Steamboat Burned.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—The steamboat Coosa, John Robinson's Circus boat, was burned in Licking river, before day this morning. Loss, total $8,000; insured for $8,000 in home companies. The cause of the fire is unknown. Three men sleeping in the boat escaped.

KEOKUK.

The Mississippi Valley Commercial Convention—First Day's Session.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

KEOKUK, Iowa, September 7.—The Mississippi Valley Commercial Convention assembled in this city this afternoon, at Gibbon's Opera House. It has been called in pursuance of a resolution of the Commercial Convention recently held in New Orleans, which recommended the holding of a Convention on the upper Mississippi some time during the summer, to consider all matters connected with the commerce and trade of the Mississippi river and its tributaries, and to see the great river and its branches free from the fetters, natural and artificial, that obstruct its navigation or retard its commerce, or in any way hinder the development of the country drained by its waters. The rate of representation named in the call is two delegates at large from each State of the Mississippi Valley, and one delegate from each Congressional district in said States, one delegate from each city and town situated on the river or any of its branches, and one delegate for each five thousand population of such city or town or fraction over.

At three o'clock P. M., after music, Gen. A. H. Sanders, of Iowa, called the convention to order, and Gen. Cyrus H. Bussey, of Louisiana, was elected temporary chairman, with four temporary secretaries.

Gen. Bussey returned thanks.

An address of welcome was then delived by William Leighton, Esq., of Keokuk.

A Committee of one from each State represented was then appointed on credentials, as follows: C. N. Savage, Illinois; W. H. Swift, Missouri; A. Burwell, Louisiana; H. B. Horn, Kansas; H. E. Hudson, Tennessee; George M. Hoard, Ohio; Wm. P. Murray, Minnesota; M. W. Beltzhoover, Pennsylvania; Robert Sommers, Kentucky; A. J. Messenger, Wisconsin; John S. Dillon, Iowa.

An attempt was made to appoint a Committee on Permanent Organization, but three or four resolutions looking to that result were voted down, members insisting that no such Committee could be appointed until the Committee on Credentials had reported.

Mr. Shryock, President of the St. Louis Board of Trade, was called for and made a speech, in which he insisted that Congress should appropriate ten millions of dollars at once to improve the Mississippi river and remove obstructions, natural and artificial.

Several other gentlemen made brief speeches.

The Committee on Credentials made their report which was received and adopted. It simply gives the names of all the delegates who have been elected or appointed, and not simply the names of those present.

General A. H. Sanders, after a few eloquent and appropriate remarks, offered resolutions complimentary to the distinguished character and services of the late John A. Rawlins, Secretary of War, which, after brief and eloquent remarks by Gen. Tuttle, Gen. Vandever, Gen. Bussey, and others, were unanimously adopted.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, September 7, 1869.

At a meeting of citizens held at the Sub-Treasury to-day a proposition to raise $50,000 for Mrs. Rawlins was carried nem. con., and fifteen thousand dollars subscribed on the spot, including that of President Grant for one thousand, received by telegraph from Washington. All the public buildings will be closed to-morrow and Thursday. The purchase of United States bonds advertised for to-morrow is postponed till Friday.

Sheridan Shook, a Collector of Internal Revenue, has been arrested and held to bail on a charge of fraud. Another officer named Abrahams is under arrest on the same charge. Mr. Shook declares his innocence.

Judge McCunn to day discharged under a writ of habeas corpus Martin Leland, charged with forging Philadelphia city warrants, on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to hold him.

Jas. H. Cafferty, a prominent painter, died to-day, aged 50.

Miss Bateman, the actress, was a passenger per the Russia.

The steamer Saxonia took $40,000 in specie.

An epidemic, the exact nature of which is not known, has broken out among the cattle in Orange county.

Woman's Rights Conventions.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, September 7.—At a special meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Association of this city, held this evening, the following delegates were chosen to attend the Chicago Convention: Mrs. W. T. Hazard, Mrs. Geo. D. Hall, Mrs. Edward Titman, Mrs. Rufus J. Lockland and Mrs. John C. Orrick. Miss Phœbe W. Cousins was appointed a delegate to the Cincinnati Convention.

Letters were read from a large number of persons announcing their intention to be present at a special Convention to be held here on the sixth and seventh of October, among them the following: Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, of Boston, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, of New York, Mary Livermore and Judge Waite and wife, of Chicago, Sheron Tyndale, ex-Secretary of State, of Illinois, Henry S. Foote, of Tennessee, Miss Lilly Peckham, of Milwaukee, Mrs. R. Davis, of R. I. Delegates will be here from quite a number of States, including some from the South and from California. Ample arrangements have been made for the reception of delegates.

California Election Excitement.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6.—The official returns of the First ward have been counted, giving McCoppin, for Mayor, a majority of 18. The Democrats are confident McCoppin is elected. The Independents threaten McCoppin shall not be permitted to assume the office if he is counted in. There is much excitement.

—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company, a vote was taken on the proposition to consolidate said road with the Frankfort and Lexington Railroad, which resulted in favor thereof by a large majority.

FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

THE COAL MINE CALAMITY.

Unavailing Efforts to Reach the Entombed Miners.

THE COMMUNITY HORRIFIED.

Crowds Flock to the Scene.

MINING GENERALLY SUSPENDED.

Repeated Descents of the Shaft.

THE LAST HOPE GONE.

Six Hundred Widows and Orphans.

THE LATEST PARTICULARS.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SCRANTON, September 7.—NOON.—The very latest accounts from the scene of the dreadful calamity at Avondale Mine are to the effect that nothing has yet been done which warrants a hope for the safety of the men below. A steam fan has been put up and is now in operation driving pure air into the shaft, but the quantity of foul air that still remains renders it impossible for a descent to be made. A tunnel is being excavated with all possible speed, by which it is hoped to intersect the chamber where all the men are entombed. They will probably reach this chamber about five or six o'clock this afternoon. Old and experienced miners fear th at all are lost, but there are some who hope that the closing of the doors of the passages leading from the shafts has prevented the circulation of fire or choke damp and confined all the gaseous matter to the shaft itself. If the fire did not reach the internal passages, it is thought no choke damp or gas has been generated, and the supply of air already in the chambers when the fire took place may be sufficient to keep some of the men alive. The scene about the place of the disaster is harrowing in the extreme. Thousands of people are present, and others are arriving. The agonizing woe of the unfortunate miners' families is heart-rending. Attempts to descend the shaft will be made this afternoon, and before night it is thought the extent of the calamity will be known.

PREPARING FOR A SEARCH.

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 7—11 A. M.—The donkey engine and fan were put in operation about an hour since. driving in fresh air to the shaft. Messrs. Carson and Davis then went down one hundred feet, and then lowered lights to within fifteen feet of the bottom of the shaft. The lamps burned freely. After making such observations as were possible, they returned, and those who have formed a committee to go down are now preparing to descend to remove obstructions and explore in search of their brethren.

Thousands of miners, women and children cover the hills and grounds in the vicinity. A Committee is circulating among the immense throng for subscriptions for the widows and orphans, who number over six hundred.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO THE SCENE.

Special trains ran from here to Avondale this morning every hour, free, until eleven o'clock. when the crowds became so dense that they obstructed the relief parties, and they were suspended. The whole community is thrilled with horror here at the great calamity. All work is suspended in the mines in this vicinity and nearly the whole force of miners, in their mining suits, have gone to Avondale to remain until their brethren are brought out dead or alive. Thousands have gone from this direction alone, and the whole country is aroused and flocking to the scene of the disaster.

THE DISTRESSED FRIENDS.

In the fourth, fifth and sixth or Hyde Park wards of this city, the streets are thronged with women, the relatives and friends of the men in the Avondale pit, eagerly beseeching every person arriving from below for information, and their weeping fills the air.

MINING GENERALLY SUSPENDED—SIX HUNDRED WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

Mining cannot be resumed at any of the works of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Co.'s mines within a week; not at least until all the funerals of the Avondale dead are over. The fact of the long and severe strike just ended adds greatly to the destitution which will follow the calamity. The widows and orphans will number not less than six hundred.

PREPARING FOR A DESCENT.

At three o'clock the crowd was cleared and a rope enclosure made around the mouth of the shaft by the police. The engine and fan were put to work at 9:40, and shortly after it was connected with the canvass conductor that reached the bottom of the shaft, two hundred and thirty-seven feet.

At 10:20, Superintendent Corwin, of Hampton mine, and J. P. Davis, carpenter of Avondale, descended one hundred feet and lowered three lamps to within fifteen feet of the bottom of the shaft. The lamps burned freely. After remaining in the shaft forty minutes, they returned from reconnoitering.

FOUR MINERS DESCEND AND RETURN.

At 11:15 Geo. T. Morgan, John Howells, Thos. Davis and Thos. E. Davis, a Committee of miners, descended the shaft slowly and with care. At 11:35 they ascended to the mouth of the shaft, reporting that after leaving the platform on which they went down they proceeded about thirty feet into the gangway, and finding a great deal of carbonic acid gas and black damp retreated, after conveying the end of the large canvass air conveyor as far into the mine as they went. The damp was between two and three feet deep on the bottom of the mine.

ANOTHER DESCENT.

At 11:55 Rees Evans, Thomas Carson, Charles Jones and Isaac Thomas, another Miners' Committee, began to descend into the shaft. The fan was kept constantly in motion during all the time, forcing fresh air into the mine. During these proceedings a Committee of fifty volunteers was formed and regularly officered by the miners to descend and recover the bodies of their companions.

AID FOR THE WIDOWS.

Rev. Mr. Hunt, at the head of a committee of twenty citizens, canvassed the immense throng with subscription books for the orphans and widows of the unfortunate victims.

HOPE GIVEN UP.

Experienced miners give up all hope of finding any one alive in the mine.

Forty miners were enrolled under the superintendence of James George, of Plymouth, and Henry W. Evans, of Pittston. Geo. Morgan, of the Nanticoke mines, was appointed Foreman on the part of the miners, and Thos. D. Evans, of Nanticoke, and Jno. H. Powell, of Taylorville, as advisors. They have direction of the operations after a descent is made.

Three hundred miners from Coalville have arrived, and there are thousands upon the grounds in the immediate vicinity, nearly one half women and children.

ANOTHER REPORT FROM BELOW.

1 P. M.—The second party of men returned safely as had the first. They penetrated the gangway a distance of seventy-five feet and found the large door wide open. They then went one hundred feet further in one of the passages and found a small door closed. After opening this door, to give a circulation of air around to the entrance, they returned. Had this small door been opened, there might have been a shade of hope, as the gas and smoke and fire would have been passing around the circuit and out again. As it is, the fears are that the smoke has penetrated the inner mine and suffocated all the men. The main doorway leading to the mine has not yet been reached.

A THIRD DESCENT—TWO MEN OVERCOME BY GAS.

The third set of men, four in number, went down and came back in fifteen minutes, two of them so overcome with the effects of gas that they are being restored with difficulty. The gas is coming out of the outer mine very fast since the passage way was opened. The wildest excitement prevails and the mass of people are kept back with great difficulty.

THE LAST HOPE GONE.

1:30 P. M.—The two miners are saved at last. It seems idle to peril life by any further attempt to go down as long as the gas is so strong. No attempt can of course be made to reach the main door, or to penetrate the mine until the outer gangway is cleared of gas. It is uncertain how long this will take. There is really no ground to hope a single life remains of those who went to work in the mine. Everybody gives them up, and nothing probably remains to be done but to recover the bodies.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT AND FAILURE.

SCRANTON, PA., September 7—3:15 P. M.—Four men descended, returned in good condition and reported the air much purer.

Later—At 6:30 P. M.—Four men, John Tisdale, Harkness, John Salterse and R. E. B. Jones went down, after letting down water hose to the bend of the air pipe and over the furnace, to put water on and deaden the fire in the furnace. They returned in fifteen minutes, saying that the water hose was landed in the shaft and they could not find the hole by which they expected to enter. They were not seriously affected by foul air.

At 7:10 another relay of four men went down. They returned in about twenty minutes, reporting that they had been at the furnace and found everything all right, except the fire in the furnace, which was still burning. They could not arrange the water hose until it was hoisted up a little. They were not seriously affected by the foul air.

CHICAGO.

Cigar Makers' Convention—American Pharmaceutical Association—Convention of Universalists.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, September 7.—At the session of the Cigar Makers' International Convention to-day the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the President of the International Union is authorized to issue an amnesty proclamation to the unfair men of our craft; and be it further resolved, that each local union shall upon the passage of this resolution open their books for the initiation of all unfair men working under this jurisdiction, upon the payment of the initiation fee; this shall in no case allow a local union to elect cigar makers who may have money indorsed upon their cards.

Eighty-seven unions are represented in this Convention.

The American Pharmaceutical Association commenced its annual session in this city this afternoon. Delegates are present from all parts of the country. This being the first Convention of the kind ever held in the West, it will be an important one to Western druggists. In connection with the meeting, a magnificent exposition of chemicals, chemical and pharmaceutical apparatus and appliances, is being held in a smaller hall near the main hall.

All the large manufactories and the more prominent cities of this country are well represented, of which Philadelphia takes the lead, both in excellence of articles and largeness of assortment, and Chicago ranks but second; New York, Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis are also well represented; England France and Germany are represented by magnificent displays from the leading houses in those countries, and fine displays are made by S. Mans & Son., of London, Rogeret Gallet, Paris, and Etienne, Rouques & Co., of the same city.

The Iowa State Universalists' Convention met at Des Moines this morning, and organized by electing Hon. A. D. Holcomb, of Montana, Iowa, Moderator, and J. Norwood Clark, of Iowa City, Secretary. Quite a large number are present and many more are known to be on the way. The Convention will continue in session three or four days.

NEWS BY CABLE.

State of Emperor Napoleon's Health—Nothing Reliable or Satisfactory—London "Times" on the French Situation—Spain and the Cuban Question—Every Effort to be Made to Retain the Sovereignty of the Island—Protest of General Sickles Against Executions Without Trial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

LONDON, September 6.—The condition of Napoleon's health commands universal attention. The most reliable reports received from Paris in this city to-day represent the health of the Emperor as unaltered, and not improved. He has been quite weak during a couple of days past, and not in sufficient strength or tone to attend to business of any sort.

The Times, in an article on the French situation, says: Many think Prince Napoleon's speech was only a feeler to arrive at a knowledge of men's minds. If so, it was promptly answered. The clamor raised places the real liberal aspirations of France beyond a doubt. The Prince's speech may be taken as the programme of the Imperial government, such as must arise when the present men and principles are removed, and when the constitution is reformed on the basis of national sovereignty, municipal self-government and ministerial responsibility. Prince Napoleon's part in the new order of things depends on the chances of the Emperor's recovery. Should the Emperor live, a liberal Ministry, with Prince Napoleon at the head, would be an experiment worth trying. If the Emperor's absence from the Cabinet is to be indefinitely prolonged, it is difficult to see who could dispute the lieutenancy of the Empire with Prince Napoleon. The present crisis in France cannot be without grave consequences, and the Prince has placed himself in a position which it will be no good policy for the Emperor to dispense with or avoid him.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The Journal Official to-day contradicts the alarming rumors of the Emperor's health, saying the Emperor attends to his affairs daily. He has suffered some from rheumatism, but at no time has his condition been such as to cause the least anxiety. The sessions of the Senate have closed.

PARIS, September 7—Evening.—The Emperor will come to Paris to-morrow. The La Presse says the condition of the Emperor has been improved a little since yesterday. His strength has increased and his pains have diminished, but it is not believed that he will be able to go out of doors to-day. The Emperor yesterday signed most of the decrees presented to him in bed. To-day he received M. Rouher and the Ministers bearing the Senatus Consultum which has just passed the Senate.

The Moniteur complains that it is difficult to obtain any authentic advices of the Emperor's condition to-day. No doubt the variations of the temperature have exercised an unfavorable influence, retarding the progress of his convalescence and rendering the pains more severe. The Emperor was unable to walk out yesterday, but he passed an easy night. Meanwhile Dr. Ricord has again been called to attend His Majesty.

Prince Gortschakoff has arrived in Paris.

SPAIN.

MADRID, September 7.—Estartus at the head of thirty Carlists, was yesterday defeated by the national troops, near Gerona. Estartus himself escaped, but many of his men were captured. This is the last Carlist band known on Spanish soil. It is reported four hundred Carlists at Perpignan, on the French border, are ready to enter Spain. The government has taken measures to prevent their entrance.

MADRID, September 7.—The Epoca to-day states that Gen. Sickles has sent a note to the Government, representing that public opinion in the United States will shortly compel the recognition of the Cuban insurgents. The Epoca urges the dispatch of the last man and expenditure of the last dollar, rather than lose Cuba. It requests that meetings be held in every town to know the state of Spanish feeling on this question, and concludes with a declaration that the loss of Cuba would dishonor the revolution. Other journals urge the dispatch of troops to the Island. Much uneasiness exists on this subject and the funds are falling.

The note of the American Minister referred to is merely a protest against executions without trial in Cuba. It intimates that Spain cannot carry on the war there in a way repugnant to the civilized world, and that Americans, in the name of humanity, might find it necessary to recognize the insurgents.

The Regent has issued a decree ordering that a circular expressing the thanks of the Government be sent to those Bishops who have complied with his late decree against the disloyalty of the clergy. He directs that the replies made by some of the other Bishops be considered in Council of State. Ten of the recusant Bishops are ordered to appear before the Supreme Tribunal.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 7.—Dispatches from India state that half of the Municipal Council of Sogan, in Cochin China, is hereafter to be chosen from French and Americans born in the country, while natives and Chinese are made eligible to the Council.

Dispatches from Alexandria report the cotton crop in the interior of Egypt as excellent in quality and quantity.

Capt. Sir Jas. Anderson has withdrawn from all connection with the French Cable Company.

Paul Bagley sailed to-day on the steamer Aleppo for America, to lay before President Grant his correspondence with Mr. Gladstone and others on the release of the Fenian prisoners.

The prosecution against Harewood, arrested in New York on a charge of fraud and brought here, has been withdrawn, and the prisoner discharged.

SWITZERLAND.

BERNE, September 7.—The Swiss Federal Council have declined to take part in the joint action proposed by Prince Hohenlohe, the Bavarian Prime Minister, with regard to the Ecumenical Council.

Recruiting for the army of Viceroy of Egypt has been forbidden in Switzerland.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, September 7.—At the next session of the Prussian Diet the Liberal party will introduce a proposition of ministerial responsibility.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Attempted Assassination of a Revenue Officer.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 7.—A number of men charged with complicity in the attempted assassination of revenue officer Brooks were brought before the Mayor this afternoon, when testimony was taken to the following effect: John Stockton, liquor dealer, was heard three weeks ago to say he knew when and where Brooks would be shot. Thomas Aiken, directly after the shooting, left his revolvers, directed to Stockton, in a store near by Keenan's, where Brooks was shot. He was heard to say he was glad Brooks had been shot. Robert Hamilton, a notoriously bad character, was partially identified as having been in the vicinity with a cab shortly before the shooting. It was also proven that he had shaved off his moustache since yesterday morning. Keenan, proprietor of the store where Brooks was shot. was held, on affidavit of Brooks himself. Keenan's son was discharged. The others were held for a further hearing without bail.

VERMONT ELECTION.

Unusually Quiet Canvass—Republican State Ticket Successful.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BURLINGTON, Vt., September 8, 1 A. M.—The canvass in Vermont has been one of the quietest known in many years Returns from thirty-three towns, casting about one-fourth the vote of the State, give Washburne, Republican, for Governor, 6691 votes; Heaton, Democrat, 2162. The same towns last year gave Page, Republican, 9932; Edwards, Democrat, 3406. This is a reduction of thirty-three per cent. in the Republican vote, and nearly thirty-seven per cent. in the Democratic vote.

Gen. Washburne and the Republican State ticket are elected by from 19,000 to 20,000 majority.

The Senate is unanimously Republican. We have returns of forty-six Republicans and four Democrats elected to the House.

CLOUDS.

BY MRS. HARRIET PRESCOTT SPOFFORD.

High in the rare crepusculine ether,
Cerrus, and fine, and fading fair,
A purpler film leaves all beneath her,
And hovering where remoter heavens are bare,
Dreams of the vanished light on so serene a height,
And shreds her vapor into ragged air.

Flamed she erewhile on sunset's bosom,
Scarlet and piled with fleeciest snow,
Crowning the side-sky with ruddy blossom—
To suffer so her sanguine ardors go,
And, with this meek surrender abandoning her splendor,
Hang like the fragrant breath of one below?

One long sad cloud that girts the quiet even,
With half a rosy reflex broods,
In doubt if this be earth or that be heaven,
And with wild moods stol'n from strange solitudes
Still drifts on slumbrous tides, and in a hushed heart hides
Low tunes and melancholy interludes.

O changing clouds, that drop the great sun's glory,
Darkly through dew to drop your wings,
Till over you stars make the spaces hoary,
And ancient springs to flood your passing brings—
Our lives are vapors, too, we gather like the dew,
And fade or float wherever fortune flings.

—The North American says "Reed birds are late this season. The unusual coolness of the weather it is supposed has prolonged their stay in Carolina." The gunning accident season has'nt yet set in.

—The champion rat-terrier is in Illinois. He recently disappeared for eight days, at the end of which time he came up, lean but fierce, through the ground, where he had been burrowing in his chase for a rat that length of time.

—Thirty-nine years ago Madame Celeste travelled in America, and made quite a sensation as a danseuse and actress. This same lady has ceased to depend upon her light fantastic toe, but still plays "young lady parts" in England.

—The Chicago Post advocates Mrs. Stowe's views of Byron. It argues that people are in the habit of being too much praised after they are dead, that Byron is dead and therefore has been too much praised, that therefore it is proper to say dreadful things about him, and because Mrs. Stowe being a woman of intellect has said about the worst things that could be said, they must be true. These are not the words of the Post but they are the sense of about the most senseless paragraph we remember seeing in that generally able paper.

—Dog fighting has become so poorly patronized that Kit Burns finds his pit don't pay, and so talks of starting another prayer meeting. This sensationalization of piety will, we think, in future times be ranked in the same category as the ballet and the pantomime epidemics which have been sweeping over the country. There are distortions and deformities in everything in this age, and the same general spirit which produces the chignon and the Grecian bend is answerable for the pothouse carousals under the mask of religion, and the eccentric sentences in chalk, which periodically shock the sane Christians of our cities.

Mississippi Monitors at New Orleans.

For some time past the Cubans in New Orleans have been quite elated by the belief that belligerent rights would soon be accorded to the revolutionists in Cuba by both the United States and Peru, and the arrival of three of the five monitors, whose departure from Mound City has been chronicled, seemed to give some color to their statements. The three monitors that have arrived are lying just below the city, and in a very dilapidated condition—certainly not ready for any active sea service—and the two others, which are at present aground this side of Memphis, are thought to be in a similar condition. There has been considerable mystery about the movements of these monitors and those connected with them, a wise shake of the head and non-committal shrug of the shoulder being about all that can be elicited from any of the officers, who, in all probability, know but little more than those who question them. One thing is certain, however, the Cubans here regard the appearance of these monitors as significant of the intention of the Government of the United States to accord belligerent rights to their countrymen, and are jubilant over the fact. It is certain, also, that if these monitors are meant for service they will have to be completely overhauled, at considerable expense. One of these vessels is named Hecate and another Fury—warlike names, certainly. N. O. Picayune, 28th.

THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY, of Canada, it is reported, has been consolidated with the New York Central and Michigan Southern. The plan of leasing the road, it is asserted, was proposed to the managers living in London, but was declined, and the owners of the roads in the United States then purchased a controlling interest in the Canada line. At the next meeting of the stockholders of the Great Western, it is believed a conditional transfer of the railway will be effected. The conduct of the Canadian Directors is severely blamed by the journals in the Dominion, and it is asserted that the third rail, to form a narrow gauge, was recently laid with a view to this consolidation. Complaint is also made that the Company has secured a considerable reduction in debt and interest due to the Government of Canada, and that the arrangement will enure to the benefit of foreigners. The Canadian Parliament, it is asserted, would never have consented to this sacrifice if the plan had then been announced. The sorest point is the reduction of freights to shippers living in Michigaa, while the Canadians have to pay heavy rates for the transportation of domestic produce.

FRANCE contains relatively a larger population of adults to children than any other European country. To follow again M. Block's calculations: France contains out of 10,000 inhabitants about 3,500 only under twenty years of age, nearly 3,300 above forty; Great Britain 4,500 under twenty, 2,400 above forty; Ireland nearly 5,000 under twenty, only 2,200 above forty. France is comparatively a land without children; Ireland a land without people.

An Immense Grape Vine.

The Santa Barbara (Cal.) Press correspondent says: "I have seen the 'Big Grape Vine.' The owner says it is forty-two years old. The trunk is nearly circular, and at ten inches from the ground is thirty-nine inches in circumference; at three feet from the ground, the smallest place, it measures forty-six inches in circumference; immediately above this measurement it swells out much larger and parts into branches. It is supported by a frame-work six to seven feet high, containing sixty-six posts from three to eight inches in diameter, and covers about 4,320 square feet of ground.

"Several of the limbs are nine feet in circumference at thirty feet from the trunk, and one of the branches at forty-eight feet from the trunk is seven and three-eighths inches in circumference. It now has over 5000 clusters of grapes on it, growing finely. The owner, and others familiar with it, tell me that the clusters will average, when ripe, about two and a half pounds each; and it makes over five tons of fruit from one vine in one year. Several persons made estimates on it last year, when the fruit was ripening, by counting the clusters on ten feet square, and weighing some average clusters. Their estimates varied from four to six tons. This is probably the largest grape vine in the world."

The Byron Scandal.

The Hartford Post says: When the advance sheets of the Atlantic paper were sent to Mr. Macmillan, the London publisher, he read them and promptly decided to print them in his magazine. The story was not unknown in England. And we may further remark that considering his position in English society, and his own interests, he would not have been likely to have published the paper if he had not reason to think it well founded. This, of course, is only inferred, for even English publishers are not always above an inclination to sensational publications. But another statement is of more consequence. We have head that a Chancery suit is now pending in the English Court which will throw light upon the alleged offspring of the alleged incestuous intercourse of Lord Byron and Augusta. If this shall turn out to be true, it will be the most important piece of evidence yet offered, and we shall look for its confirmation or disavowal with profound interest.

The Boston Advertiser says: It is stated that Mrs. Stowe will not reply to the criticisms on her Byron scandal until the comments of the English press are received by mail, when she can deal with all together in one comprehensive, annihilating broadside.

A Steam Omnibus.

A new steam omnibus has been tried in Edinburgh. The engine, with an omnibus attached, was run up and down an incline to exhibit its speed and the ease with which it could be controlled. It went up the hill at the rate of seven miles an hour, and came down it at the rate of nine. It turned in the road with far greater ease than if drawn by horses, was pulled up instantaneously at the word of command, and even backed up hill. The dexterity with which it picked its way between strings of cart-horses, omnibuses and cabs, and the docility with which it stopped or turned whenever it was required were marvelous. It ran from one end of Prince street to the other without stopping, then turned down South Charlotte street, and on through North Charlotte street to Forrest street, where at the steepest point, when the descent looked really dangerous, it was brought to a sudden standstill, to show how completely it was under command, and how entirely it could dispense with any kind of break.

THE Hudson River Railroad Station, built in New York city on the tract of land formerly known as St. John's Park, covers four square acres of ground, and is reported to be the handsomest station ever built in this or any other country. The front of the building on Hudson street presents a bronze bas-relief, covering a surface of 3,125 square feet, and weighing 100,000 pounds. It measures 150 feet in length and 30 feet in its extreme height, and cost $500,000. A bronze statue, twelve feet in height and weighing four tons, stands within a recess, on a bronze pedestal five feet square placed on a carved block of granite weighing eleven tons. The bas-reliefs on either side represent the progress of transportation by land and water, from the country wagon to the locomotive, and from the canoe to the steamship, and the whole work is bordered with a granite cornice and ornamental scroll work.

ENGLISH letters mention the departure from England for the United States of Mr. Henry Labouchere, nephew of the late Lord Taunton, and formerly member of Parliament from the important county of Middlesex. Mr. Labouchere was for many years in the diplomatic service, and when in the House of Commons was active in endeavoring to reform its many abuses. He is an extremely clever man, with powers of satire and observation which have been used to great effect in literature as well as in politics. Mr. Labouchere, who has inherited most of the large property of his uncle, is said to take a great interest in theatrical matters, one of the largest theatres in London being indebted to him for open doors. He is an advanced liberal in his opinions, and during the rebellion was one of what is called in England the "party of the North."

EXTRAORDINARY scenes in a graveyard are reported from Belfast, Ireland. The Privy Council had ordered the closing of the Shankhill burying ground, except where there could be seven feet of earth left above each coffin. For two days, until a late hour at night, a number of persons to evade this order, took possession of the graveyard, and disinterred the remains from the overcrowded graves. Their object was to sink the graves so deep as to enable them to reinter the coffins, and still retain the right of sepulture in the particular spot. The scene was of the most dreadful character; corpses in all stages of decomposition were lying about, and even undecayed shrouds. The Mayor ultimately, with a police force, appeared, and having convinced the people that they were acting illegally, the graves were covered up again.

A BOAT RACE between a Miss Ward and a Miss Sumner, in which the latter won, is the latest sensation at Martha's Vineyard. As the winner came up to the floating wharf so many people gathered on it that it sunk under them, and sixteen men and women were immersed to the neck.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea. Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 7, 1869.

The oil market continues painefully quiet, but a single sale reported in two days, and dealers generally are in a complete state of suspense, and anxiously waiting for the long expected improvement, and which, it is to be regretted, appears to be as far off as ever. The only visible effect the decreased shipments has exerted thus for, has been to create a firmer feeling; the demand is by no means urgent, though there is somo inquiry and but very few sellers—in this market at least, as refiners generally have very wisely concluded not to sell until such time as a fair margin can be secured, and that time, it would appear, has not yet arrived. Crude is still relatively higher than refined, and, as a consequence, there is no inducement offered to the manufacturer to sell, and, as already intimated, it is almost impossible to effect a sale of refined at present prices. It is said, and it is probably true, that the foreign markets are up sufficiently to give the exporter a margin, but, nevertheless, these exporters, for some cause or other, do not appear very anxious about taking hold; otherwise, the market would give some evidence of it.

CRUDE.

The was but a single sale, 1,000 bbls, seller September at 14¾, and this seems to be regarded as the standard price for either spot or seller this month; seller all year nominal at 14½; and buyer all year at 15¼.

REFINED

But a single sale reported, 500 bbl last half September at 32¼. Later it the day this delivery was better, 32½ being offered without takers, and "refusals" asked at 32⅝; October, last half, quoted at 32¾@33; and the same figures will answer for last three or four months.

RIVER NEWS.

The rains of Monday night and yesterday forenoon had not, up to last evening, had much influence on the river. Another rain like this last one, would do some good, and there was every appearance last night of a continuance of it. The weather is somewhat cooler; mercury 78 against 82 on Monday.

—The Thompson Dean has laid up at Carnondelet.

—The Mohawk's barge, sunk at President's Island, was laden with hay, and it is feared the cargo will be a total loss.

—Joseph Rutlege, the pilot of Jim Watson, has filed a libel against that boat, at St. Louis, for one hundred and thirty dollars wages.

—The Belle has been hauled up to the main landing and will resume business in the Parkersburg trade, just as soon as there is sufficent water.

—Capt. Corbett, of Nashville, has sold the A. Baker to John W. Trover, of Cairo, for $3,300 cash. She is to ply between Cairo and the Tennessee river.

—Captain Geo. Miller and the Stevens brothers are building a new side-wheel steamer at Dyersburg, for the Memphis and Dyersburg trade. She will be completed by the time the business season fairly opens, —At Louisville there are two side-wheel and two stern-wheel steamers building; at Jeffersonville, six stern-wheelers and two side-wheelers; at New Albany, two side wheelers; and at Portland, one side-wheeler. This is lively boat building, for a fact.

—Capt. Stockdale, after an absence of about three weeks, during which time he visited Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago, returned home yesterday. He came from Chicago like lightning on the lightning train, in a little over 14 hours—distance 465 miles.

—The Louisville Courier says: The Gallatin, a side-wheel steamer, purchased for the Memphis and Mound City trade, arrived at Jeffersonville yesterday. Capt. Ebert, commander of the Mollie Ebert, is in the city. The Mollie will leave here Wednesday, and will connect with the R. E. Lee at Cario.

—A Swedish emigrant, named John Johnson, fell overboard from the Victory and was drowned, at the head of Lake Pepin, on her last trip up. He attempted to draw a bucket of water, and was jerked overboard. The unfortunate man left a family, for whom the passengers and crew of the boat made up a handsome purse and presented it to the wife.

—The Gem, a small stern-wheeler, engaged in the wood and tie buisness at Nebraska City, was totally wrecked on Tuesday last in Kansas Bend, about six miles below that place. The boat was owned by parties in Nebraska City, and was worth about $6,000. At the time of the accident she was loaded with lumber, ties and wood. There was an insurance on the boat for $1,000

—There is a lesson in this paragraph from Saturday's St. Louis Democrat: The class of boats now existing carry so much on little water, that they don't require to load to the guards to carry a large amount of freight. Boats carrying over four hundred tuns on four feet of water, and others nine hundred tuns on six feet, form a startling contrast to the Western steamers of twenty years ago.

—We extract the following from the St. Louis Republican in regard to the sale of the Great Republic: An offer of $90,000 was sent on to her chief owner at Pittsburgh, last week, and the answer telegraphed back was, that another party was also figuring for her, and offered more than the "party of the first part." Yesterday Capt. Wm. J. Kountz, of Pittsburgh, telegraphed that she had been sold for $91,000, and gave no further particulars. Since then we have learned that her purchasers are: Capt. Wm. B. Donaldson, James Atkinson and James P. Haigh, of Pittsburgh. The present purchasers are well known, especially the first named one, Capt. Wm. B. Donaldson, who figured so extensively lately in connection with the Great Republic, as original commander. It is said to be the intention of the owners to place Capt. Donaldson in command, and run the boat between this city and New Orleans during high water, and between Vicksburg and New Orleans during the fall season.

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 86.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 136½@136⅝.

SECRETARY FISH has not favored the selection of Mr. George Wilkes for the Chinese mission.

A LARGE AUDIENCE may be reckoned on for the speech of Judge BINGHAM, of Ohio, on Thursday evening, in the Allegheny Diamond.

HON. DANIEL KALBFUS, of Mauch Chunk, an eloquent and instructive speaker, addressed a large meeting at Beaver last evening. He also attends the Republican meeting at Ebensburg, Cambria county, on Thursday evening.

THE approximate registration of Crawford county foots up a total voting list of 13,480, about 300 votes less than were actually polled at the Presidential election. The law provides for the correction of the lists, and every voter should see that his name is duly entered.

THE rumor of a fortnight since that General G. M. Dodge would succeed Gen. Rawlins in the War Office seems to have had this foundation: That the probability of an early vacation of the portfolio, either by the resignation or the death of the then Secretary, had directed the President's attention to General Dodge, and letters of enquiry were probably written, to sound him upon the point of acceptance. He is now conspicuously mentioned for the vacant post.

THE evident inclination of the opposition leaders to discard ex-Senator BUCKALEW from any position of influence and honor in the party is really a matter for public regret. That gentleman has superior abilities, standing a head and shoulders above his Democratic competitors in scholarly attainments and oratorical gifts, which have often graced and dignified a bitter partisanship. He has had ample proofs already, and seems likely to meet with still more, that these qualifications do not commend him to Democratic support. The latest evidence comes from his own district of Northumberland, where a portion of the party have bolted his nomination for the State Senate.

ROLLS OF HONOR XVIII and XIX, just issued by the Quarter Master General, embody the record of the interment of forty thousand, three hundred and forty-three Union soldiers, in the various National Cemeteries. Of these, the names of eleven thousand, five hundred and thirty were unknown. The total number of interments reported in all these records is now swelled to about one hundred and hundred and ninety-three thousand, of whom seventy-three thousand have not been identified. It is supposed that there remain, to be similarly recorded, the interments of about one hundred and twelve thousand more, an aggregate in all of over three hundred thousand of the Union dead, a sad record which should yet be largely increased, to embrace the complete mortality lists of the Great Rebellion.

THE TENNESSEE REBELS propose to follow the Georgia precedent, and reform their Legislature, as soon as it convenes. This body has eight members, elected from certain Eastern counties, who are to be expelled on the ground that they claim to represent districts which have no legal existence. The ulterior purpose contemplated by the rebel plans is to maintain the illegality of all legislation which may have been had under the amended Constitution of '65, when the votes of these eight members have been required to make a quorum. Since this would include a very considerable part of the Republican legislation for the three years past, the scope of the rebel proposition may be better understood. Its effect, among other things, if successful, would be to unseat Senator BROWNLOW. Lively times may be looked for at Nashville, in October.

ANOTHER.

Major General JOHN A. RAWLINS, Secretary of War, who died at Washington, on Monday last, was born in Illinois, Feb. 13, 1831, of parents still living. Reared as a farmer, he began the study of the law at Galena, in 1854, and was admitted to the bar the ensuing year, devoting himself to the profession, and voting with the Democratic party until the outbreak of the rebellion. When the Bull Run defeat startled the nation, he engaged in raising a company for service, was commissioned on the staff of his friend, Brig. Gen. GRANT, in September, '61, and has remained with him, from Belmont to Appomatox, as Chief of the General Staff at Washington, and finally at the head of the War Office. His illness was hemorrhage of the lungs, the result of a cold contracted in the service in 1864, from which he had since continuously suffered. He leaves a wife and two children, a third, an infant but a few days old, preceding him in death last week.

His death is a personal loss to the President, whose confidential friend he had ever been, and a public loss to a people which mourns a record already too large, of its bravest and noblest life given that the Republic might live.

BURIED ALIVE.

The calamity at the Avondale colliery is most shocking. At this writing, there seems little reason to hope for the ultimate rescue, alive, of the two hundred human beings who were, on Monday morning cut off by fire from the light and air of Heaven and immured, perhaps speedily suffocated, hundreds of feet below the earth's surface. Vigorous efforts have been in progress, to open a communication with the living or the dead, the results of which may be ascertained before this sheet is printed. Remembering the almost uniform fatality which has attended such disasters in coal-mining experience, it is hoping against all experience, as against all science, to rely upon the rescue of the prisoners alive. We fear that relief will come at last only to a multitude of the dead. And at least two other lives have been lost in efforts for their rescue before it was too late.

If our fears shall prove to be well-grounded, this Avondale disaster will far outrank, in its terrible fatality, any previous occurrence of the sort on this side of the Atlantic. An explosion some years since in the Midlothian mines, of the Richmond (Va.) district, destroyed a large number of lives, but not nearly so many as are now likely to be reported from Avondale. In this case an immense wooden framework, called a "breaker," and constructed for the reduction and screening of the large lumps of anthracite sent up by the miners from below, a building two hundred feet in length and one hundred feet high, had been placed directly over the main shaft of the mine. The contingency of fire, and the consequent certain confinement, and probable destruction, of every miner under ground, seems never to have been noticed, or thought worthy of consideration by the proprietors. This terrible event instructs us for the future. The Legislature should enact such practical and stringent safe-guards, as will assure, beyond any contingency, the safety of the main avenues to all underground works.

A POINT OF DANGER.

The ratification of the XVth Constitutional Amendment is the necessary and logical consummation of all the efforts made by the Republican party for the preservation of the Union, on the basis of Universal Liberty and the Equal Rights of all classes of inhabitants. As we have on several occasions intimated, the proposed Amendment is in danger of defeat. Its failure would result inevitably in the re-formation of Southern political society on an oligarchical basis, differing in essential particulars, it might be, from that which existed before the abrogation of Slavery, but, on the whole, nearly as offensive in principle and as arrogant and domineering in practice. Such a consummation would defeat, in a very large measure, the vital ends for which the loyal population of the country, through a number of bloody years, made unparalleled sacrifices.

True, Pennsylvania has ratified the Amendment, and Republicans maintain that her action in that regard is irrevocable. But, it must be remembered that the Democrats take an entirely opposite view of the case. They contend that the assent that has been given by this Commonwealth, strictly in accordance with the forms of law, can be revoked by the Legislature at any time before the final decision shall be announced in the proclamation of the Federal Secretary of State. This view has no foundation in usage or in the terms of the Constitution, but it can be so persisted in as to create uncertainty and trouble. It is, therefore, of the highest moment for the prevalence of justice and the maintenance of public repose and order, that the Republican ascendancy in this State be retained unimpaired. To allow the pending election to go by default, or by a campaign only half contested, would be to entail incalculable evils, and to render necessary a succession of struggles to accomplish that which is now comparatively easy.

What is wanted of the Republicans of Pennsylvania is not only to make sure that her ratification of the Amendment, already on record, shall not be challenged, but to so reiterate her assent at the ballot-boxes as to inspire a large degree of confidence and enthusiasm in other States where elections are held later.

DO YOU COMPREHEND THE PERIL!

In 1871 the Legislature will have devolved upon it the duty of apportioning Pennsylvania both for Congressional and Legislative representation. Both of these apportionments have not fallen on the same year since 1801, and will not fall on the same year again till 1941. This consideration is of the utmost political importance.

It has been demonstrated in all the recent contests in this State that the Republicans have a handsome majority of the votes on a full poll, and that the Democrats hold a majority of the counties. Every experienced politician comprehends that the State can be divided into Congressional and Legislative districts, on purely territorial bases, and in conformity with the letter of the Constitution, while giving the minority the larger part of the representation. This would be to contemn and frustrate the essential spirit of a democracy, which inculcates that the majority shall rule.

Every politican comprehends, moreover, that the State can be districted with due reference to territorial considerations, and yet respect the intrinsic rights of the majority to govern, thus complying with the spirit as well as the letter of the Constitution.

That this may be done, it is indispensable that General GEARY be re-elected to the governorship. With Mr. PACKER in the Executive chamber, apportionment bills might be coerced which would strip the Republicans of power, and hand over the control to the Democrats, though these should be found at every recurring election thenceforward, to be in a decided minority on the popular vote.

We press this point. If the Republicans of this State do not wish to find themselves shorn of power, and to have their mouths stopped from uttering reasonable complaints, they must demonstrate at the coming election, by the re-election of Gov. GEARY, that their array is unbroken, that they are the majority, and hence have the natural and legal right to govern. Nothing will satisfy the requirements of the present case but a round majority of lawful ballots. Republicans! if you fail in this, multiplied disasters will be likely to come upon you. Having the power, see to it that you use it effectively.

THE CUBAN INTERFERENCE.

The terms of the existing treaty of 1795 with Spain are so peculiar that it is conceded on all hands at Washington that our recognition of Cuban independence would lead inevitably to a war with Spain, whose flag would at once cover all the pirates of the world, in pillaging and scattering our shipping. Is it worth while to consider such a trifle as this, in the face of the noble proposition to prove our national sympathies for Cuban liberty?

It is said that we have invited Spain to arrange her Cuban imbroglio by conceding the independence of the island, conditioned that not over one hundred millions of dollars shall be paid to her for her public property therein, this debt being guaranteed by the American Government, and that slavery be abolished. Our suggestion to a foreign power that it should concede the independence of a revolted province, is simply an impertinence, and we don't believe that any such proposal has been officially presented by American diplomacy.

The stipulation for the abolition of slavery is commendable, but the Spanish Constitution, at this moment nominally in force in all the dominions of that nation, itself abolishes slavery, and the stipulation is superfluous.

The proposed guarantee of one hundred millions of the Cuban debt, if accepted, would result as surely as fate, in the ultimate addition of that sum to the heavy burthen now resting upon the American people? Do we not owe enough already, of debt incurred in a better cause? Are we such earnest propagandists that we can afford to pay that vast sum for diffusing the blessings of liberty in neighboring lands?

It is further reported that Spain declines these propositions, insisting very properly that the rebels shall lay down their arms, pledging to them a general amnesty, requiring from them payment for all public property, and for all private property destroyed, providing for the submission of the question of dependence or independence to a popular vote of the islanders, and for an American guarantee of Cuba's proportion of the Spanish public debt, in case independence is asserted. Than these terms, nothing could be more just. Yet it is said the insurgent agents decline to favor them.

Now, observe the predicament into which the Administration seems to be drifting, in all this awkward business. Its mediation is commendable, if accepted by both the contesting parties, upon an agreed basis, and involving no compromise of our own peace, dignity or resources. But this attempt is futile to negotiate an impossible agreement between two parties, one of which has the laws of nations, the entire public code of the world, upon its side, rights the most clearly indisputable, and which, were Spain a first-rate power, would never be impugned, while the other rejects every reasonable proposal, and demands nothing less, in effect, than the forcible intervention of a third party, the government of a republic which has first abolished its own institutions of human slavery at a fearful cost, for the maintenance of that slavery in an independent Cuba.

The President and his constitutional advisers ought to see by this time, as events move on, that they are in danger of involving the Republic in serious difficulties, and in a still more serious and shameful disgrace. The sooner they shall retire from a business with which they have no call whatever to meddle, in its present shape, the better for the country. If politicians at the Capital and a portion of the eastern Republican press have become so demoralized, by any form of underhand pressure, or led so far astray by their yearnings for the spread of personal and political liberty on the globe, that they fail to comprehend or be controlled by the plain teachings of this Cuban situation, let us have consolation in knowing that the American people are taking a more practical view of the case. They want no intervention of any sort, as long as African slavery exists in Cuba: they do not want the responsibility of directing and enforcing its abolition there; they do not want any increase, present or remote, in their public debt; they do not want a Spanish war, or any other war; they want to be let alone, and to let alone every other people on the planet. They want the Administration to keep these just expectations in view, and they will want Congress to enforce them in fact.

Whatever course our Government may take, it will pass under review when Congress meets. Let us hope that there will be no mischief to be undone.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judges Hampton and Kirkpatrick.

TUESDAY, September 7.—The argument list was resumed in the District Court this morning. No business of public interest was transacted.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

TUESDAY, September 7.—In the habeas corpus case of the Commonwealth ex rel. Geo. Amberson vs. Julian Amberson, a return was made yesterday and the case argued by T. M. Marshall, Esq., for the relator, and Jno. M. Large, Esq., for the respondent. The matter in controversy was the custody of a daughter of the relator's, aged ten years, which, it appears, was held by the respondent, who is its grandmother, on the ground that the father was not a proper person to take charge of it. The Court ordered that the child be given into the custody of the father, its natural guardian, and that the respondent pay the costs of the proceeding.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

TUESDAY, September 7.—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Thomas Elliott, indicted for assault and battery, tried on Monday, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed that the prosecutor, James Owens, pay one-half the cost and the defendant one half.

The first case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. Barnhart Hartman, indictment larceny. The prosecutor was one of the proprietors of the Red Lion Hotel, and he alleges that the accused was caught in the act of hauling away a load of manure from the prosecutor's stable-yard. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Joseph Sharp, charged with abandonment on oath of his wife, Catharine Sharp, was, after a hearing, ordered to pay the sum of $15 per month to the support of his family. He was also held in the sum of $500 bail for the faithful performance of the order, and in a like sum of $500 to keep the peace for a period of two years.

INHUMAN TREATMENT.

The next case taken up was an indictment against Frank Lenstetter for inhuman treatment, in which it was alleged that one Frank Lenstetter had treated his wife in a most inhuman manner, and that he was aided and abetted in this brutal conduct by his brother, Charles Lenstetter and his wife. It appears that the accused resides in Hampton township, and that the wife of Frank Lenstetter, the accused, was blind and infirm and that instead of treating her as a human being, she was placed in an old vacant house, where she was kept without sufficient clothing to cover her or keep her warm, and that the place in which she was kept was full of filth and vermin. The parties, it appears, originally all resided in the same house, but after the unfortunate woman became blind her sister-in-law would not allow her to remain in the house. The neighbors, it is alleged, remonstrated against such inhuman conduct, but to no purpose, and finally the case was brought to the notice of the Directors of the Poor, who caused her to be removed to the Poor House. Robert McElhenny, a neighbor, made information against the parties before Justice Hardy, of Hampton township. The evidence on the part of the Commonwealth more than substantiated the charges.

One witness testified that he had been called upon by Justice McElheny to go with him to see the woman, and on arriving at the place they were shown into an outhouse about 10x12 feet, and found the woman lying on a bunk, with an old straw tick covered over her, and that she had on an old quilted petticoat. The woman was blind, her hair was all coming out, and there were bed sores on her sides. There was a stove in the room, but no fire in it. There had been fire in it, as there were some ashes in the bottom. The outhouse was in a filthy condition, and the woman was filthy.

Several other witnesses corroborated this statement.

The defence, in palliation for the offence, alleged that the defendant was in indigent circumstances, had not the means to suport his wife in luxury, and that there was not that neglect on the part of the accused as was alleged by the Commonwealth. Jury out.

Court adjourned to meet at half past nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

Methodist Annual Conference — Pittsburgh District.

[Correspondence of the Pittsbugh Gazette.]

FAIRMOUNT, W. VA., Sept. 4, '69.

Fourth day, afternoon session, opened in the usual way. Minutes read and adopted. After some discussion, it was decided that the President of the Conference, Dr. Collier, should travel the District.

Dr. George Brown, from the Committee on Education, reported Adrian College in a very prosperous condition, as well as all the educational interests of the denomination.

H. B. Knight read a very able essay on the "Deaconship," arguing that it is not an "order" in the christian ministry. He was asked by the Conference to produce it in pamphlet form.

Rev. A. Clark, from the Committee on Obituaries, reported the demise of Thos. H. Stockton, D. D., and James B. Graham, A. M., both members of this Conference.

President Mahan addressed the Conference on the condition and interests of Adrian College, showing it to be in excellent condition, intellectually, morally and financially, with very encouraging prospects for the future.

Dr. Scott, editor of the Methodist Recorder, addressed the Conference on the Publishing Interests of the Church, showing increasing prosperity in every department.

Adjourned with prayer.

FIFTH DAY'S SESSION.

MONDAY, Sept. 6.—Morning session opened in the usual manner. Roll called; minutes read and adopted. Committee on Sabbath Schools reported the cause flourishing throughout the District. Committee on Ministerial Education reported that agency doing a good work.

At eleven o'clock, the Maryland delegation took their leave of the Conference in a very affectionate manner, expressing their satisfaction for the privilege of mingling with the members of the Conference, and the good people of Fairmount. Expressing also the ardent hope that we shall all soon be one in organic union. The whole assembly then engaged in singing a suitable christian melody while a general shaking of hands took place. It proved a very affecting scene indeed—such as is seldom witnessed.

Adjourned in the usual manner.

SUNDAY, Sept. 5.—The pulpits of this place and the contiguous villages were supplied by members of the Conference and fraternal visitors. It was a high day. After an eloquent sermon by J. J. Murray, D. D., of Baltimore, in the church where the Conference holds its sessions, three young men were ordained to the office of Elder in christian ministry. In the afternoon, a missionary meeting was held at the same place, and was addressed by Doctor Collier, Rev. J. B. Walker, and others, and nearly three hundred dollars secured. In the evening, after an excellent sermon by Dr. Nichols, of Frederick City, Maryland, upwards of seventy dollars were secured for ministerial educational purposes.

Birmingham Council.

The Council of Birmingham borough held its regular monthly meeting last evening, at the office of Burgess Salisbury, on Fourteenth street.

Members present: Messrs. Oliver, Atterbury, Voegtly, Doyle, Ward, Schwarm, McIlwaine and Burgess Salisbury, who presided.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Atterbury, of the Finance Committee, reported that the Committee had examined the accounts of the borough officers and found them correct.

Mr. Oliver, from the Street Committee, reported the progress of work on various streets.

A communication from a number of citizens residing on Twelfth street, complaining that Keeling & Co. had obstructed the gutter in said street, at the mouth of Broad street, was read.

On motion of Mr. Atterbury, the communication was referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

Mr. McIlwaine reported that the Market Committee had examined the account of the Market Master, for repairs done to the hall, and found the same correct. The report was adopted.

A petition was presented in behalf of Mrs. Poth, residing on Washington street, near McKee street, asking to be relieved from the payment of the amount assessed against her for curbing and paving on said street. On motion of Mr. Schwarm, the petition was granted.

Bills were presented and warrants authorized for their payment, as follows:

Lewis, Oliver & Phillips	$ 18 00
Janitor of Mechanics' Hose Company	25 00
Krugh & Zeh, printing engine house	54 00
D. Doran, street purposes	800 00
Hastings & O'Neil, on account	1,000 00
N. J. Kellar, on account	500 90
Stalzenbach, in full	64 00
H. Hunter	62 00
James Smith	50 00
P. Demil

Warrants were also authorized for the payment of officers' salaries.

The Street Committee, to whom was referred a petition of property owners on Ninth street, asking the grading and paving of said street, report unfavorably on said petition, because the filling is too fresh, and will probably sink and throw the street out of grade.

Mr. Oliver, from the Railroad Committee, reported that the Committee, together with the President of the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company, passed over the proposed route through the borough, and after a thorough examination of the same, the members of the Committee unanimously decided adversely to granting the right of way to the Company along Beach street. In the opinion of the Committee a railroad along said street would be detrimental to the interests of the borough. The report was adopted without discussion.

A petition of Lewis, Oliver and Phillips, asking permission to erect a platform scales on Grosvenor street, in front of their property, was presented, and on motion of Mr. Doyle, it was granted.

On motion of Mr. Atterbury, the matter of paving Harmony street, near the river, was referred to the Street Committee.

Adjourned.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The California State Fair opened yesterday with a splendid showing of stock. The attendance is large.

—Senator Sumner has been invited to preside at the Massachusetts Republican Convention, which meets on the 22d.

—The Grand Lodge of the United States of the Ancient Order of Good Fellows will convene at Cincinnati today.

—Ex-President Johnson still lingers in Nashville, having been there some ten days scheming for election to the U. S. Senate.

—Mrs. A. B. Busch, of German descent, while laboring under delirium induced by sickness, drowned herself in a cistern at St. Louis, yesterday.

—The New England Fair opened at Portland, Me., yesterday. The display of cattle is very fine, and of horses larger than at any previous exhibition.

—Prof. Davidson's scientific party has returned to San Francisco from Alaska. The result of the expedition is satisfactory. The party visited a region of country never before penetrated by white men.

—The partition walls of a large new brick building, in Baltimore, gave way yesterday morning, wrecking the building. Several bricklayers and hod carriers were at work in an upper story, and four were buried in the ruins. Three men were rescued, severely cut and injured. A fourth, named Benj. Locks, colored, a hod carrier, was dead.

—Judge Jere S. Black, of Penna., has brought suit in the sum of $26,000 against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., for injuries sustained some time during the early part of the summer. Had the Railroad Co. been prompt in paying the physicans who attended Judge Black during his sufferings, he would probably have been more indulgent.

—The Ohio excursion party arrived at Topeka, Kansas. Sunday night, and although there was a heavy storm at the time, the people turned out and gave them a warm welcome. They were taken from the depot to the hotels in carriages and their wants provided for. Yesterday the weather was fine and the whole party was shown the city and surroundings. They leave for Sheridan today.

—At the Susquehanna Railroad Directors election yesterday, the Fisk party cast their vote, 13,000 shares, and then organized by electing W. S. Church, President, and S. R. Herrick, Vice President. The Ramsey party at a separate poll, cast their vote, and were yet, at 2;30 P. M., engaged in canvassing. The indications are that the election will go for naught, as both parties held separate polls, and had separate inspectors, and received votes twice from certain towns.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

A REGULAR HABIT OF BODY

Is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs and one of its most common results is CONSTIPATION. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminated blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant, or a tonic, or an anti-bilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label, with our steel engraved revenue stamp over the cork, is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

AN ORDINANCE

Granting Certain Privileges on High and Washington Streets to the Monongahela Incline Plane Company.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Mt. Washington, and it is ordained by the authority of the same, That permission be granted to the Monongahela Incline Plane Company, to erect over High street, near its intersection with Washington street, a Truss not less than twenty feet high in the clear, for the purpose of sustaining the cables used in operating the cars of said company; with liberty to said company to locate the upright timbers of said truss twelve and one half feet from the centre of said High street.

SEC. 2. That permission be also granted to said company to open up the roadway of said High street for the purpose of laying under said street the necessary apparatus to contain the cam-rods of the steam engine of said company, provided that the travel of vehicles over said street shall not be interrupted for a longer period than forty-eight hours.

SEC. 3. That permission be also granted to said company to fill up Washington street from its intersection with High street, along the said company's property to the south-east corner of the property of Wm. M. Lyon, in such manner as shall be agreed upon by the Street Committee and the Engineer of said company; provided, however, that said company shall at its own proper cost and charge relay in a strong and substantial manner the board-walk on Washington street, between said points on a level with the new grade on said street.

SEC. 4. That the permission granted by the first, second and third sections of this ordinance shall not be taken and construed as a waiver by the Burgess and Town Council of said borough of the right and power to change, alter and modify the grades of said High and Washington streets, and that the right to change, alter and modify said grades is hereby reserved, provided that said grades shall not be changed, altered or modified at said company's property until after thirty days' notice has been first given to the proper officers of said company.

EDWARD BRATT, Burgess.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 7, 1869.

Government bonds were very much depressed on lower quotations from Europe, and the sudden demand for money. The market opened weak, declined at noon and closed dull and heavy with the lower quotation for gold. It is more the fear of a very tight money market that accelerates the decline in bonds, than large lots offered for sale.

A declining gold market, and the increased offers of good securities on the market, yielding from 7 to 8 per cent interest, diminish the demand for Government boods, and must eyentually depress their market value in currency considerable, although their real value of gold standard is increasing.

Gold opened dull but steady until after the usual arrangements for loans had been made, when the market suddenly broke to 136⅛, closing heavy at 136¼@136⅛. The reports of Napoleon's health had no influence on the market, but simply stayed a rapid decline, which is looked for on the first assurance of our European money centres being in a nominal condition again. The design of the cliques in gold, however high they may have intended to carry the premium, was frustrated yesterday by a split in the ranks, and one fraction was a ready seller early in the day. To-morrow will most likely decide the course of gold for the rest of the month, and if downward, a heavy decline must be looked for.

Stocks are very dull and generally lower throughout. Some of the cliqued stock have suffered a heavy decline, and do not seem to touch the lowest point, yet express shares remain firm, and should Merchants Union declare a dividend during this month, as is expected, a sharp rally may be looked for, as the short interest is very large.

Money is more in demand, but good borrowers are supplied at low rates. Business is dull.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 136⅛; Silver, 130; Eighty-one's, 122; Five Twenties, 1862, 122; do 1864, 121⅝; do 1865, 122; do 1865, Consols, 120⅛; do 1867, 120⅜; do 1868, 120; Ten Forties, 110⅞; New York Central, 203⅛; Erie, ——; Reading, 96¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 86¼; Ohio & Mississippi, 31⅛; Michigan Southern, 101¾ Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 108⅝; Chicago & Rock Island, 111½; Chicago & North Western, 79½; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 88¾; Adams Express Company, 56½; Merchants Union Express, 10; Pacific Mail, —; Western Union Telegraph Company, 36¾; American Express Company 36½.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 7, 1869.

The general markets are quiet and devoid of anything deserving of special notice. The grain market is unsettled and irregular, and notwithstanding the receipts are not unusually large, prices are tending downward. Flour, also, is dull, with a drooping tendency. Groceries, with the exception of sugar, for which there is a good demand, are also dull. Green truck in good supply and cheap, while fruits of all kinds appear to be firmer.

APPLES—With an increased demand and diminished arrivals, the market is firmer and prices better, ranging from $2,50 to $3,50 per bbl.

BERRIES—Blackberries higher, with sales at $1@1,10 per bucket.

BUTTER—Prime to choice is very scarce and prices have again advanced; we now quote at 30@35.

CHEESE—Is steady, but unchanged, ranging from 15 to 17, the outside figure for New York Goshen.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands may be quoted at 29@30 for round lots, and 31@32 in a retail way.

CEMENT—Johnstown Hydraulic Cement is quoted at $2,25 per bbl.

EGGS—Scarce and higher, with sales reported at 20, for fresh packed.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is dull with liberal arrivals and a supply fully up to the demand, which is almost wholly local. Winter wheat brands are still quoted at $7@7,50. There is little doing in spring wheat flours and not much in market.

GRAIN—The mills are receiving considerable wheat, while dealers are getting but very little; prices weak and drooping. $1,30@1,32 being about the best bids. Oats firmer under the influence of diminished receipts, but as yet, no higher—47@48 to the trade and 48@50 in store. For rye there were no buyers to-day above $1,10, and to sell at this price holders will lose money. In regard to Barley, buyers seem determined not to go above $1,25, that is for prime. Corn dull and unchanged; small sales of prime ear at $1.

GROCERIES—The market, with the exception of sugars for which there is a demand, is dull with a light volume of business in the aggregate, and no change in prices.

SUGARS—S H, 11¾@12; A A, 13; Havana 13½@14; Cuba, 12¾@13; Porto Rico, Demarara, 15; New Orleans, but little prime in market and sells readily at 14@14½; lower grades, 13; Refined, Ex. C, 15½; B, 15¾; A, 16; Hard, 17.

MOLASSES—New Orleans of good quality is in strong request and bring 85@90; Porto Rico, 65@75.

SYRUPS—White Honey Drips, $1,10; Silver Drips, 95c; Jersey, 90c; Lovering, 90; Golden 70; Amber, 60; Common, 50.

COFFEE—Fair to Good Rio, 20@22; Prime, 24½@25; Choice, 26@26½.

RICE—Carolina, 9¾c@10c; Rangoon, 9.

TEAS—Young Hyson, $1,00@1,80, G. P., $1,10 to 1,90. Imperial, $1,40 to 1,80. Oolong, 85 to $1,45. Sou Chong, 90c to $1,50.

STARCH—Pearl, 7½; Silver Gloss, 11½c, and Corn Starch, 12½c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

FRUITS—Layer Raisins, $3,50 per box; Matt do, $7,50; Prunes, 13½c; Currants 12¼c; Valencia Raisins 14¼.

SPICES—Cassia, 75c; Cloves, 45c; grain Pepper, 36 Allspice, 33c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,25 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c: "Oakely's," 11c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c; Wax, 10c; Chem. Olive, 9c.

CANDLES—Mould, 15½c; Star, 23½c.

BI CARB SODA—$6½ per 100.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond market of 45 loads, at $15@22 per ton.

HEMP—Very dull, $205 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—White Lime is quoted at $1,50, and Cleveland at $2,50 per bbl.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. quote Extra No. 1, at 1,43, and No. 2, at $ 1,05@1,08

PROVISIONS—The demand is fair, but unchanged. Bacon, Shoulders, 15¾; Ribbed Sides, 18½; Clear do, 19½; Sugar Cured Hams, 23@23½. Lard, 20¾ in tirces, 21 in half bbls, and 21¾ in buckets and kegs. Mess Pork, $33¾@34. Dried Beef, 22.

PEANUTS—Sales at 15 cents.

PLUMS—Sold to-day at $4.75@5 per bushel, mostly at $5.

PEACHES—We can report sales all the way from $2 to $3 per box, the latter figure for fancy.

SWEET POTATOES—Sales of Jersey sweets at $6,50@7 per bbl.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

SEED—Small sales of timothy seed at $4,50@4,75. Nothing doing in clover and flaxseed.

TALLOW—Rendered quoted at 10½.

WATERMELONS—Range all the way from $12 to $20 per 100.

Live Stock Market.

CHICAGO, September 7.—Cattle dull, and prices 20@25c lower; $4,50@5 for fair to good cows, $5,50@6 for light and $7@7.37½ for good to choice shipping beeves. Hogs steady and active for best grades; $8,24@8,50 for common, $8,80@9,25 for fair to medium, and $9,40@10,12½ for good to prime.

ST. LOUIS, September 7.—Cattle; there is a fair business in common and medium grades and little doing in prime and choice, which are in light supply; prices range from 2 to 6½c. Hogs steady and firm and supply small; stock hogs sell at $7@8, and heavy at $9@10.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, September 7.—The Dry Goods market was quite active throughout and prices were generally well sustained, if we except Kirkland No. 2 Linseys, which are reduced from 19c to 18½c, and Rob Roy do. from 19c to 18½c.

MARK TWAIN'S BOOK.

Some Extracts—Michael Angelo—Bantering the Guides—Americans Abroad.

Concerning Michael Angelo, Mark Twain writes as follows in his book—The Innocents Abroad—just published:

In this connection I wish to say one word about Michael Angelo Buonarotti. I used to worship the mighty genius of Michael Angelo—that man who was great in poetry, painting, sculpture, architecture—great in everything he undertook. But I do not want Michael Angelo for breakfast—for luncheon—for dinner—for tea—for supper—for between meals. I like a change occasionally. In Genoa he designed everything; in Milan he or his pupils designed everything; he designed the lake of Como; in Padua, Verona, Venice, Bologna, whom did we ever hear of from guides but Michael Angelo? In Florence he painted everything, designed everything, nearly, and what he did not design he used to sit on a favorite stone and look at, and they showed us the stone. In Pisa he designed everything but the old shot tower, and they would have attributed that to him if it had not been so awfully perpendicular. He designed the piers of out of the Leghorn and the Custom House regulations of Civita Vecchia. But, here—here it is frightful. He designed St. Peter's; he designed the Pope; he designed the Pantheon, the uniform of the Pope's soldiers, the Tiber, the Vatican, the Coliseum, the Capitol, the Tarpeian Rock, the Barberini Palace, St. John Lateran, the Campana, the Appian Way, the Seven Hills, the Baths of Caracalla, Claudian Aqueduct, the Cloaca Maxima—the eternal bore designed the Eternal City, and unless all men and books do lie, he painted everything in it.

I never felt so fervently thankful, so soothed, so tranquil, so filled with a blessed peace, as I did yesterday when I learned that Michael Angelo was dead.

[The guides were an intolerable nuisance, but he shows his countrymen how to deal with them:]

We have taken it out of this guide. He has marched us through miles of pictures and sculpture in the vast corridors; and through miles of pictures and sculpture in twenty other palaces; he has shown us the great picture of the Sistine Chapel, and frescoes enough to fresco the heavens—and pretty much all done by Michael Angelo. So with him we have played that game which has vanquished so many guides for us—imbecility and idiotic questions. These creatures never suspect—they have no idea of sarcasm.

He shows us a figure and says: "Statoo brunzo." (Bronze statue.)

We look at it indifferently and the doctor asks: "By Michael Angelo?"

"No—not know who."

Then he showed us the ancient Roman Forum. The dector asks: "Michael Angelo?"

A stare from the guide. "No—thousan' year before he is born."

Then an Egyptian obelisk. Again: "Michael Angelo?"

"Oh, mon dieu, genteelmen! Zis is two thousan' year before he is born!"

He grows so tired of that unceasing question sometimes that he dreads to show us anything at all. The wretch has tried all the ways he can think of to make us comprehend that Michael Angelo is only responsible for the creation of a part of the world, but somehow he has not succeeded yet. Relief for overtasked eyes and brain from study and sight-seeing is necessary, or we shall become idiotic sure enough. Therefore this guide must continue to suffer. If he does not enjoy it, so much the worse for him. We do.

The doctor asks the questions, generally, because he can keep his countenance, and look more like an insipid idiot, and throw more imbecility in the tone of his voice than any man that lives. It comes natural to him.

The guides in Genoa are delighted to secure an American party, because Americans so much wonder, and deal so much in sentiment and emotion before any relic of Columbus. Our guide there fidgeted about as if he had swallowed a spring mattrass. He was full of animation—full of impatience. He said:

"Come wiz me, genteelmen!—come! I show you ze letter written by Christopher Columbo!—write it himself!—write it wiz his own hand!—come!"

He took us to the municipal palace. After much impressive fumbling of keys and opening of locks, the stained and aged document was spread before us. The guide's eye sparkled. He danced about us and tapped the parchment with his finger:

"What I tell you, gentlemen? Is it not so? See, handwriting of Christopher Columbo—write it himself!"

We looked indifferent—unconcerned. The doctor examined the document very deliberately during a painful pause. Then he said, without any show of interest:

"Ah—Ferguson—what—what did you say was the name of the party write this?"

"Christopher Columbo; ze great Christopher Columbo!"

Another deliberate examination.

"Ah, did he write it himself or—or how?"

"He write it himself—Christopher Columbo; he's own handwriting, write by himself."

Then the doctor laid the document down and said:

"Why I have seen boys in America only fourteen years old who could write better than that."

"But this is the great Christo—"

"I don't care who it is! It's the worst writing I ever saw. Now, you mustn't think you can impose on us because we are strangers. We are not fools by a good deal. If you have any specimens of penmanship of real merit trot them out—and if you haven't drive on!"

We drove on.

We have made it interesting for this Roman guide. Yesterday we spent three or four hours in the Vatican again, that wonderful world of curiosities. We came very near expressing interest sometimes—even admiration; it was very hard to keep from it. We succeeded, though. Nobody else ever did in the Vatican museums. The guide was bewildered, nonplussed. He walked his legs off nearly hunting up extraordinary things, and exhausted all his ingenuity on us, but it was a failure; we never showed any interest in anything. He had reserved what he considered to be his greatest wonder till the last—a royal Egyptian mummy, the best preserved in the world, perhaps. He took us there. He felt so sure this time that some of his old enthusiasm came back to him:

"See, genteelmen!—mummy! mummy!"

The eye-glass came up as calmly and deliberately as ever.

"Ah, Ferguson, what did I understand you to say the gentleman's name was?"

"Name?—he got no name!—mummy!—'Gyptian mummy!"

"Yes, yes. Born here?"

"No! 'Gyptian mummy!"

"Ah, just so; Frenchman, I presume?"

"No!—not Frenchman, not Roman!—born in Egypta!"

"Born in Egypta! Never heard of Egypta before. Foreign locality, likely. Mummy, mummy. How calm he is, how self-possessed. Is, ah—is he dead?"

"Oh, sacre bleu, been dead three thousand years!"

The doctor turned on him savagely.

"Here now, what do do you mean by such conduct as this! Playing us for Chinamen because we are strangers and trying to learn! Trying to impose your second-hand carcasses on us! Thunder and lightning, I've a notion to—to—if you've got a nice fresh corpse, fetch him out, or by George we'll brain you!"

We make it interesting for this Frenchman. However, he has paid us back, partly, without knowing it. He came to the hotel this morning to ask if we were up, and endeavored as well as he could to describe us. He finished with the casual remark that we were lunatics. The observation was so innocent and so honest that it amounted to a very good thing for a guide to say.

There is one remark (already mentioned) which never yet has failed to disgust these guides. We use it always when we can think of nothing else to say. After they have exhausted their enthusiasm pointing out to us and praising the beauties of some ancient bronze image or broken-legged statue, we look at it stupidly and in silence for five, ten, fifteen minutes—as long as we can hold out, in fact—and then ask:

"Is—is he dead?"

That conquers the serenest of them. It is not what they are looking for—especially a new guide. Our Roman Ferguson is the most patient, unsuspecting, long-suffering subject we have had yet. We have enjoyed his society very much. We trust he has enjoyed ours, but we are harassed with doubts.

[The follies of Americans abroad are well hit off in the following sketch, taken at Paris:]

Between the promenades and the sidewalks are seated hundreds of people at small tables, smoking and taking granita—a first cousin to ice cream—on the sidewalks are more employing themselves in the same way. The shops on the first floor of the tall rows of buildings that wall in three sides of the square are brilliantly lighted, the air is filled with music and merry voices, and altogether the scene is as bright and spirited, and full of cheerfulness as any man could desire. We enjoyed it thoroughly. Very many of the young women are exceedingly pretty, and dress with rare good taste. We are gradually and laboriously learning the ill manners of staring them unflinchingly in the face—not because such conduct is agreeable to us, but because it is the custom of the country, and they say the girls like it. We wish to learn all the curious, outlandish ways of all the different countries, so that we can "show off" and astonish people when we get home. We wish to excite the envy of our untraveled friends with our strange foreign fashions, which we can't shake off. All our passengers are paying strict attention to this thing, with the end in view which I have mentioned. The gentle reader will never, never know what a consummate ass he can become, until he goes abroad. I speak now of course in the supposition that the gentle reader has not been abroad, and therefore is not already a consummate ass. If the case be otherwise, I beg his pardon and extend to him the cordial hand of fellowship and call him brother. I shall always delight to meet an ass after my own heart when I shall have finished my travels.

On this subject let me remark that there are Americans abroad in Italy who have actually forgotton their mother tongue in three months—forgot it in France. They cannot even write their address in English in a hotel register. I append these evidences, which I copied verbatim from the register of a hotel in a certain Italian city:

"John P. Whitcomb, Etats Unis."

"William L. Ainsworth, travailleur, (he meant traveler, I suppose), Etats Unis."

"George P. Morton, et fils d' Amerique."

"Lloyd B. Williams, et trois amis, ville de Boston, Amerique."

"J. Ellsworth Baker, tout de suite de France, place de naissance Amerique, destination la Grand Bretagne."

I love this sort of people.

"I NEVER HEARD," says a Paris Correspondent of the London Star, "a more striking instance of strong men 'dying hard' than one that is given in the Paris papers. A well known wrestler and athlete of Avignon, bearing the illustrious name of Meissonnier, caught, a few weeks ago, his death illness by carrying a little girl across a swollen pond, which she was obliged to traverse in order to take to her father his dinner. This action was performed in the most good-natured way. Meissonnier seeing the child, who was to him an utter stranger, trembling and weeping on the brink, said to her 'Take heart, little one, I'll serve as a ferry for you.' Swinging her on his shoulder, he carried her over. On returning to the bank whence he started, he slipped, and was thoroughly submerged. A cold, which led to a virulent fever, was the result. As his end approched Meissonnier literally struggled with the malady, and his last words were, 'Oh, Death, if you were a man what short work I'd make of you.

THE HATS worn at the seaside in France are very varied this season, and yet a marked preference is accorded to hats with large feathers and high crown, such as the Montpensier, a creation of Mme. Moreau-Didsbury. The coquettish Montpensier is turned up at one side, with a large bow of black velvet, and there is also a long feather that crosses the crown. This style of head-dress suits well the present arrangement of plaited chignon, called the "Chatelaine;" it is copied exactly from that worn in the time of the Fronde, when Mlle. de Montpensier was the principal heroine.

A FRENCH concern, the Compagnie des Chantiers de la Seyne, is understood to have been charged by the Turkish Government with a colossal work—a great girder bridge of boats to unite Stamboul to the suburb of Galatz. The length of the bridge will, it is affirmed, be no less than 6,000 feet.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver Complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleural adhesions, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

The Worrell Sisters in Lalla Rookh at the Opera House to-night.

Coroner Clawson is attending court at Uniontown. During his absence Alderman Donaldson will perform the duties of the office.

Whisky furnished its quota of victims, six in all, at the Allegheny Mayor's office yesterday. Some of them go to assist in maintaining the work house.

The Worrell Sisters will positively appear at the New Opera House to-night. Seats pucrhased for Monday evening, can be exchanged by applying at the box office.

Stolen Goods Recovered.—Officer John Herron recently recovered a lot of silverware that had been stolen from the residence of Thos. J. Keenan, Esq., at East Liberty.

Horse Killed.—A horse attached to a dray ran away on Fifth avenue, near Congress street, yesterday, and ran against the shaft of another dray which penetrated his lungs, causing his death.

Charter Granted.—In the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday, on motion of Chas. F. McKenna, the final order for a charter of incorporation was granted to the Merchants and Mechanics Building and Loan Association of Allegheny City.

Some Potatoes.—There were grown in the garden of A. Shallenberger, near Bloomington, P. & C. R. R., from two ordinary potatoes of the Chilli denomination, two hundred and twenty potatoes, measuring from five to ten inches in circumference.

Fresh Oysters.—Our readers who are fond of a dish of oysters, done up for the most fastidious should remember Youngson, corner of Diamond alley and Smithfield street. In fact Youngson has everything you want in the eating line. Ladies especially are invited.

Explosion.—An explosion occurred at Bailey & Brown's iron mills, about two o'clock yesterday, which was caused by one of the workmen dropping a ladle of melted metal in a trough of water. The face of the man who was carrying the ladle was severely cut and bruised, but no one else was injured.

Stock Sales.—Tuesday Evening, September, 7th, at Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer.

Union National Bank.....	$152 00.
Coal Men's Trust Co.....	93 00.
Allegheny Suspension Bridge	50 00.
Perrysville Plank Road.....	12 00.

Smashing Things.—A man residing on Webster avenue, having been using a considerable quantity of "benzine," yesterday returned to his place of abode about four o'clock, and proceeded to break up housekeeping by smashing the crockery and furniture. He was not interfered with in his amusement, and finally gave up the job.

Caught Again.—Wm. Moore, charged with the larceny of a lot of furniture belonging to Mr. Seward, was arrested yesterday by Officer Mulvaney, of the Mayor's police. It appears that there were two or three other charges against William, which required his attendance at Court, and yesterday, while sneaking into the back door of his lawyer's office, he was captured. He was commited for trial.

Congress Street—A correspondent complains of the wretched condition of Congress street, below Franklin, in the Seventh Ward. He states that the Street Commissioner has been appealed to time and again to have the matter remedied, but all to no purpose; that last winter the street was almost impassable a large portion of the time, and fears even a worse state of affairs the approaching winter, unless something is done in the meantime. He desires us to thus publicly call the attention of the proper authorities to the matter.

Organization of the Sixth Ward.—The citizens of the Sixth Ward, Pittsburgh, held a meeting last night, and organized a Geary Club. Forty persons enrolled their names. The following persons were elected: President, Samuel Morrow; Vice Presidents, John D. Evans and Thomas T. Evans; Secretaries, H. E. White, Jr., and R. D. Nichols; Treasurer, Henry Tatnall; Captain, Robert Houston; First Lieutenant, Robert Fowler; Second Lieutenant, John Jones; Orderly Sergeant, Samuel Fawcet; Color Bearer, James Gordon, The club adjourned to meet Friday evening next.

Night School.—The standing Committee of the Central Board of Education on night schools held a meeting yesterday in the rooms of the board, on Fourth avenue, at half past two o'clock. It was decided to open the night schools on the 25th inst, to continue for 65 nights, and that an appropriation of $50 per month be made to all districts wherein the average attendance was from 10 to 25; and that a further sum of $25 per month be appropriated for every additional 20 scholars. The sum so appropriated is to be distributed among the teachers as the Central Board may direct, but no teacher is to receive a greater amount than $50 per month.

Charged with Bigamy.

Yesterday James Lucas made information before Alderman McMasters against Sarah S. Boland for bigamy. James is a brother of Sarah and alleges that she is at present the fortunate possessor of three husbands, two of whom, however, have been discarded. Sarah, in default of bail, was committed for trial. The same prosecutor made information against her last husband, Joshua Boland, alleging that he knew of the existence of the other husbands at the time he consented to make Sarah Mrs. Boland. Joshua gave bail for a hearing.

The Humboldt Concert.

The concert to be given in honor of Humboldt on the eve of the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, now promises to be one in every way creditable to the Committee having it in charge and worthy of the great man whom it is to honor. The best talent which is procurable in the neighborhood will add to the harmony of the evening. The mere announcement of such a concert ought to more than fill the Academy of Music and the fact that it is for so worthy a purpose is only additional reason why it should be perfectly successful. The Turners are celebrated for their skill in presenting tableaux vivants, but it is not often that they offer us an opportunity of seeing them particularly in two such pictures as are promised for next Tuesday night.

THE ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

Meeting of the Board of Controllers—Action Relative to the Mute School—Election of Music Teacher—Changes in the Text Books—Salaries of the Principals—German in the Schools,

The Allegheny Board of School Controllers held their regular monthly meeting last evening, Preaident Clark in the chair.

Present—Messrs. Ashworth, Brahm, Barker, Beckart, Brown, Borland, Chadwick, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Forrester, Gerwig, Hobson, Haney, King, Kallock, Lea, Lockhart, Minnemeyer, Miller, Moul, Mussler, McRoberts, McCance, McConnell, McClinton, Oakley, Patterson, Pitcairn, Parke, Riggs, Swift, Sprague, Trimble, Wilhelm, White, and Rev. J. B. Clark, President.

Rev. Mr. King opened the proceedings with prayer.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the preceding meeting approved.

REPORTS FROM LOCAL BOARDS.

Mr. Lockhart, from the Second Ward Board, reported that the schools could not be opened until this morning, on account of the construction of a sewer in front of the building.

Mr. Lea, from the Fifth ward, reported the opening of the schools with an attendance of over six hundred scholars—a considerable increase over last year.

Mr. Forrester presented a report of the election of teachers in the Seventh ward, which was approved.

Mr. Eaton, from the Committee on Colored Schools, reported the election of Miss Ella Willson as teacher of the grammar department of the school, which was approved.

THE MUTE SCHOOL.

Mr. McCance moved that Dr. Brown, who wished to make a few remarks in relation to the Mute School established in Pittsburgh under the control of the Central Board, be granted privilege to speak, which was agreed to.

Dr. Brown then explained the establishment of the Mute School, and said the Central Board had employed two teachers, one at a salary of $400 and the other at $600 per year, with which they thought forty children could be taught. The school commenced last Monday and was now attended by sixteen scholars. There were, according to statistics, one hundred to one hundred and fifty mute children in this vicinity, and the need of such an institution had long been felt. The Central Board had concluded to throw the school open for pupils from outside districts, at a yearly tuition of twenty dollars each. This would not meet the expense, but the remainder would be borne by the Board, who were anxious to extend the privileges of the school to all in the vicinity. They merely asked the Board of Control to make arrangements for granting permits to children from Allegheny City. The Board by the method named, would be liable for the tuition of every pupil granted such permit.

Several members of the Board stated they had visited the school and thought it an admirable plan for the education of mutes in this vicinity without burdening parents with the great expense of sending their children away to other schools.

After some discussion Mr. Francis offered a resolution which was amended by Mr. Parke, referring the matter to the Committe on Teachers and Salaries with power to act.

In response to an inquiry the Secretary stated that the Board was required to publish a report of its proceedings each year.

GERMAN IN THE SCHOOLS.

Mr. Beckart offered the following:

Resolved, That when fifty or more citizens, taxpayers, in any ward of the city of Allegheny shall petition the Board of Controllers to provide for the teaching of German in schools, it shall be the duty of the Local Board of each ward to provide rooms suitable for such purposes and employ a male teacher competent to act as instructor.

Mr. Swift asked for the reading of the report of a Special Committee appointed at a former meeting of the Board in 1867.

The Secretary referred to the minutes and read the report, which was adverse to the employment of teachers of German in the schools, on the ground that the English language should only be taught there.

Mr. Swift opposed the resolution on the ground that if carried out impartially, teachers would be required for nearly every language on the face of the globe, of which the American people were composed. If such a resolution were in force in San Francisco, the Directors of the schools there would be compelled to employ teachers of the Chinese language. America had nothing to do with such a matter, all they had to do was to educate the pupils of the schools in the common language of the nation.

Mr. Beckart thought the Board in Allegheny City had nothing to do with the Chinese or any such people, but they had to do something for the large German population of the city. He ventured a wager that if the question were submitted to the people nine-tenths of the voters would decide affirmatively.

President—Mr. Beckart, you must refrain from betting here. We are opposed to that sort of thing. [Laughter.]

Mr. Francis offered an amendment that when the City High School was established a teacher of the German language be employed for the city at large.

Mr. Swift moved an amendment to the amendment that the teacher be designated as Professor of modern languages. Lost.

Mr. Francis amendment was also lost.

Mr. Eaton thought nothing but English should be taught in the schools. The sooner the German population assimilated to American manners and customs, the better for their interests.

Mr. Lockhart thought that his children should be taught the Scottish language, but the expense was to come out of his own pocket, not the City Treasury. If the Board were in Germany the resolution might be all right, but unfortunately it being in America, the only business of all foreigners was to Americanize themselves

Mr. Francis opposed the resolution on the same ground.

After some further discussion, the yeas and nays were called on the passage of the original resolution, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Ashworth, Brahm, Beckart, Chadwick, Forrester, Gerwig, Haney, Mussler, McClinton, Riggs, Trimble and Wilhelm.—13.

Nays—Messrs. Barker, Brown, Borland, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Hobson, King, Kallock, Lea, Lockhart, Minnemeyer, Miller, Moul, McRoberts, McCance, McConnell, Patterson, Parke, Swift, Sprague, White and President Clark.—22.

TEACHERS AND SALARIES.

Mr. King moved to reconsider the action of the Board taken at last meeting, fixing the salaries of principals in the schools. Decided out of order, the gentleman having voted with the minority at the last meeting.

Mr. Kallock moved that each principal having six or more assistants be allowed a salary of $1,400 per annum.

A motion to lay on the table was decided in the negative.

Mr. Moul offered an amendment fixing the salary of each principal with less than six assistants at $1,200.

Mr. Eaton stated if the salaries were not increased the best teachers would be drawn elsewhere. The Pittsburgh Directors could now secure the best teachers in the Allegheny schools because they gave higher salaries. He favored employing the best teachers and giving proportionate salaries.

Alter some further discussion Mr. Moul's amendmendment was lost, and a vote on the original resolution resulted as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Barker, Brown, Borland, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Hobson, King, Kallock, Lea, Lockhart, Miller, McCance, Swift, White, and President Clark.—16, Nays—Messrs. Ashworth, Brahm, Beckart, Chadwick, Forrester, Gerwig, Haney, Minnemeyer, Moul, Mussler, Mc Roberts, McConnell, McClinton, Oakley, Patterson, Parke, Riggs, Sprague, Trimble, Wilhelm.—20.

ELECTION OF A MUSIC TEACHER.

Mr. Mussler moved to proceed with the election of a second music teacher for the schools. Carried.

Mr. Eaton stated that the former applicants, Messrs. Cargo, Watt and McCabe, were still before the Board. Since the last meeting Messrs. Byers and Carnahan, both highly recommended, had made application for the position.

Mr. Mussler was appointed teller, and the vote was taken. The first ballot was taken, resulting as follows: Cargo, 16; McCabe, 11; Watt, 5; Carnahan, 1.

No candidate having received the requisite number of votes, twenty-five being required, five more ballots were taken without an election, the vote standing at the close of the sixth ballot: Cargo, 24; Byers, 13. The other candidates had been dropped previous to taking this ballot.

Mr. Lockhart moved to elect both gentlemen, and divide the salary between them,

Mr. Hobson asked privilege to change his vote in favor of Mr. Cargo. Some discussion ensued relative to points of order, when Mr. Lockhart's motion was voted down, and Mr. Hobson's petition granted, when Mr. Cargo having the requisite number of votes was declared elected.

CHANGES IN TEXT BOOKS.

Mr. Trimble asked for information in rezard to the change in text books in geography. The agents for Guyot's were not exchanging according to their stipulations, and were asking eighty cents additional to the old work.

Mr. Riggs moved that the Local Boards be instructed to stop all exchanges of geographies, unless the agents for Guyot's exchanged book for book according to agreement. Carried.

Several bills were presented and warrants for their payment ordered to be drawn.

Adjourned.

County Executive Committee.

An adjourned meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee was held yesterday (Tuesday) at half past two o'clock, W. S. Purviance, Esq., in the chair.

The minutes of the proceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Lambie, chairman of the Committee on speakers and meetings, reported that R. Stocket Matthews, Esq., of Baltimore, would visit the city and address a meeting at City Hall, Thursday, the 23rd inst.

Mr. Morgan reported that the arrangements for the meeting at the Diamond square, Allegheny, Thursday evening, the 10th inst., have been completed. Hon. John A. Bingham, of Ohio, would address the meeting. The report was accepted, and on motion all organized clubs were invited to act as an escort to the speaker.

The Committee resolved to hold a large number of ward and township meetings.

James W. Murry and Walter S Mc Cune, Esqs, tendered the use of their office, at 116 Fifth Avenue, to the committee as Head Quarters.

The tender was excepted and the thanks of the Committee tendered in return.

On motion, it was resolved to hold the regular meetings of the Committee on Tuesdays and Fridays at 2½ oclock, in the District Court room.

The Committee then adjourned.

Shooting Scrape at a Doggery.

Tuesday evening, between five and six o'clock, a disturbance was raised at a doggery on Second avenue, a short distance beyond Everson's rolling mill, kept by a Mrs. Mullen, resulting in the shooting of James Lewis, a resident of the locality. It seems that one Samuel Humphries became intoxicated at the place, and, taking offense at something, smashed things generally, pitching tumblers about promiscuously, and also struck and abused Mrs. Mullen. While this was going on, Charles Mullen, about eighteen years of age, son of the proprietress of the house, secured a revolver, intent, perhaps, on slaying the peace disturber, and in his excitement fired, seemingly at no one, but the shot unluckily took effect upon Lewis, who was standing outside the house, the ball striking his chin and glancing upwards, inflicting a severe but not necessarily dangerous wound. Immediately after firing the shot Lewis, without hat or coat, started for a physician, and finding Dr. Arthurs hurried him off to attend the wounded man.

Soon after the occurrence policemen were on the ground, but no arrests were made, the citizens of the vicinity seemingly feeling very little interest in the affair, and the officers declining to exercise authority without warrant.

Brotherly Differences.

James E. McCleary and his brother John seemed to get along in a rather unpleasant manner yesterday. This was made apparent in two informations, for larceny as bailee and surety of the peace, made before Alderman Donaldson, James appearing as prosecutor and John as defendant. John, it is said, formerly boarded with James, who keeps house in the Sixth ward. They disagreed, however, a few days ago in regard to some trifling matter, when, according to James' statement, John threatened to do all manner of evil against him and his wife. This formed the basis for the surety of the peace information. The larceny as bailee, as alleged, consisted in John's retaining possession of a lot of tools, which he borrowed of James. The matter will be fully investigated at the hearing, which will take place when John is arrested.

Seventh Ward.

The Vigilance Committee of the Seventh ward held a meeting last evening, at the office of Alderman Joseph A. Butler. A large number of names of prominent Republicans were added to the Committee. Alderman Butler was chosen President and Treasurer; Ed. Brush, Esq., Secretary; and Messrs. David L. Fleming, James Onslow and James Bonebreak were appointed a Committee on Printing. The names of the full Vigilance Committee of the ward were ordered to be published in the Republican newspapers at an early day. Adjourned to meet at the Franklin street School House on Monday evening next.

On His Way.

An incident occurred at the Union Depot, about two o'clock yesterday morning, which is another evidence that crime, although successful for a time, sooner or later meets its reward, and that justice sometimes swiftly follows the criminal and requires him to pay the penalty of the offended law. At the time stated above, Mr. Lewis Oswalt, a resident of Mercer county, Ohio, purchased a ticket at the railroad office, after which he placed his pocket book, containing $785, in the inside breast pocket of his coat, and while waiting for the train upon which he intended to take passage west with his wife and child, he discovered that his pocket had been picked, and his money, book and all taken. Fortunately for him there were but few persons at the depot at the time, and he remembered the faces of those who had been near him. He made known his loss to officer Havis, and described the man whom he thought had robbed him. The officer promptly arrested the man, who gave his name as William C. Chandler, and resided in Newark, N. J. He was taken into the office of the Superintendent for the purpose of searching him, and while sitting on a chair, it is alleged, the pocket book was found on the floor near the chair. He was taken to the lock-up, where he remained until yesterday morning, when an information was made against him by Mr. Oswalt, and he was committed for trial. The information was returned to court and brought before the Grand Jury which was then in session, and at ten o'clock, A. M., a true bill was returned.

The District Attorney proposed to try the case immediately, and Judge Mellon expressed his readiness to hear it, but at the request of Messrs. Coyle and Large, Attorneys for the defendant, it was postponed and will be the first case taken up this morning.

A gentleman, formerly a merchant in this city, was also arrested at the request of Mr. Oswalt, as he had been in conversation with him a few minutes before he missed his pocketbook, but he was discharged in the morning, as soon as he was recognized by his friends.

Chandler is a young man of fine personal appearance, apparently about twenty-five years of age, and has not the look of a thief, although it is reported that he is old in crime.

Board of Health—Monthly Reports—Cess Pool Cleaning.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon. Members present: Messrs. Wilson, Pearson, Welsh and Case.

The reports of the Health Officer, Assistant Health Officer and Meat Inspector were read and inspected.

REPORT OF OFFICERS.

The report of Health Officer Gray shows 104 nuisances abated, or in process of abatement, during the month of August, on account of which 93 persons were notified. The number of permits granted to clean privies was 40, for which $80 was received, and expenditures of the month were $12,10. The Board received $60 from fines for cleaning privies without permits.

The report of the Assistant Health Officer, Mr. Williams, shows 131 nuisances abated, on account of which 111 persons were notified.

From the report of Mr. Weaver, Meat Inspector, it appears that during the month his visits to the markets, meat shops and drove yards numbered 658. He condemned thirty pieces of meat, from small portions to a half barrel, mostly corned beef. There are now in existence sixty-six meat shops, classed as follows: First, 20; second, 30; third 14. He reports the markets and shops as having been well supplied, considering the hot weather.

The Secretary also read an application from John Ward for license to clean privies. He states that he has already one vacuum tank and has ordered another, as shown by note from J. M. Brush & Son, builders.

On motion of Mr. Welsh, Mr. Ward's application was granted.

The examining Committee was notified that one machine was ready for inspection. It was decided that it would be necessary to witness a test of the machine.

On motion of Mr. Case, warrants were ordered to be drawn for the payment of the Health officers, the Physician of the Board, and in payment of a bill of Messrs. Errett & Anderson for printing.

On motion, adjourned.

Take It Away.

It is not an additional attraction to any home to have a cow shed located within four feet of the front door; not the shed or the cow of themselves are disagreeable particularly, but the fragrant associations connected with such an institution are usually more observable than pleasant. To persons of delicate organization such an affair is extremely annoying, and it therefore was no wonder Mr. James Chambers, who resides on Pasture lane, Second ward, Allegheny, taking into consideration the peace, happiness and comfort of his family, should strenuously insist that Mr. Gallagher, who was his neighbor, should forthwith remove the shed which is occupied as a home for her quadruped, and is within a few feet of his front door. Mrs. Gallagher, when he intimated that a removal of the same would meet with his hearty approval, should not have objected to the reasonable suggestion, and declared that it was a "free country" and all that. If she had acted differently perhaps she might not have been compelled to appear before Alderman Strain yesterday and give bail for her appearance next Friday morning to explain why she persists in maintaining on her premises a nuisance to the great annoyance of her neighbors.

Not a Horse Theif.

John George, who was arrested by officer Moon Monday, a notice of which we published yesterday, is still in the lock-up, although it is quite evident that he is not a horse theif. It appears from the statement of Mr. T. C. Nighman, of Canton, Ohio, who arrived in this city yesterday morning, that George, who lives about twelve miles from this city, had been at work for him, driving team for a considerable time. Some weeks ago George wanted to come home and Mr. N. told him to bring with him a valuable horse to sell for him, if he could. He came and after a while wrote that he had sold the horse, but had to take him back again. Mr. N. then wrote him to sell again, and "be smart enough to get away." He heard nothing from him, and a couple of weeks ago wrote that if he did not send the money or bring the horse, he would regard the animal as stolen. Mr. N. is anxious to recover his horse, but does not wish to push the case against George. He might be guitly of larceny by bailee, but not of horse stealing.

G. A. R. in Birmingham—Dedication of a New Hall.

Since the date of its organization Post No. 151, G. A. R. of Birmingham has been holding its meetings in a hall in Eichlay's building, Denman street, but with an increased membership these quarters became too small, and a change was rendered necessary. After some difficulty the members of the Post succeeded in securing a suitable place in Mr. Shaffer's new building on Bingham street, which they fitted up in an appropriate style, and occupied for the first time last evening. The opening or dedication of the new headquarters was made the occasion for a pleasant reunion of the friends and members of the organization, who gathered in large numbers and filled the spacious interior to its utmost capacity. The fitting up of the hall was of the most beautiful character, and occasioned many commendable remarks from the ladies and gentlemen visitors who had assembled to participate in the dedicatory ceremonies. After it had been thoroughly examined, Mr. H. B. McCurry called the assembly to order, and the meeting was organized by Captain W. B. Cook being called upon to preside. The Captain returned his thanks for the honor in a felicitous manner, and concluded by calling upon Rev. H. Roth, who made an impressive and appropriate dedicatory prayer.

Brief and pertinent addresses then followed by Messrs. W. D. Moore, W. C. Moreland, J. H. Kerr, of Pittsburgh, and Hon. Miles S. Humphreys, Rev. Wm. Hastings and others, which were well received and frequently elicited applause. These exercises were interspersed with music by the Washington Cornet Band and singing by Prof. John Abel Jones, who favored the audience with some of his choicest selections.

Professor Prosser closed the ceremonies by singing with fine effect the "Ship on Fire," after which the company separated, with pleasant recollections of the occasion and many good wishes for the continued prosperity of Post 151.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The season opened at the Opera House last evening under the most auspicious circumstances. The house was crowded in all parts, and the audience was a highly appreciative one. "Lalla Rookh" was presented by the Worrell Sisters in a most admirable manner. The singing of Miss Sophia and Jennie is excellent, and they are supported by a strong company, in which we notice the O'Neil sisters, who played at the Opera House last winter. Persons desiring seats for this evening's entertainment, at which will be presented "The Field of The Cloth of Gold," should call at the box office and secure them during the day, as everybody is anxious to see the Sisters, and the house will doubtless be crowded.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The attendance at the Pittsburgh Theatre was quite large last evening, as it has been every evening since the season commenced. The entertainments are of an excellent character and highly amusing. At the matinee this afternoon a splendid bill will be presented for the special amusement of ladies and children. Mr. Williams is determined to make the "Old Drury" a first class Varieties Theatre.

Not a Larceny.

Yesterday morning Michael Barlow made information before Mayor Drum against a well known butcher of Allegheny for larceny. Barlow stated he had got change for a twenty dollar bill at the butcher's stand in the market, at the same time exhibiting a new greenback of a similar denomination. The two then retired to take a drink, While in the saloon Barlow missed the new greenback and accused his friend of taking it, which was strengthened by the latter opening his pocketbook and revealing what was claimed to be the identical bill. A disagreement and Barlow's appearance at the Mayor's office was the result. The accused was arrested and a hearing was held when several witnesses were examined. Finally Barlow, at the instance of the Mayor, re-examined his pocket-book, when lo, the missing bill appeared among a lot of small currency. The butcher was cleared and the hasty prosecutor learned a lesson which, in the future, will doubtless be of use to him.

The Humboldt Celebration next Tuesday promises to be one of the grandest affairs of the kind that our city has ever witnessed. Judging by the reports we hear, the procession will be majestic in proportions and unusually respectable in the character of its participants. The programme is a peculiar and attractive one. The vast crowd drawn together by the memory of one man, the orations in two languages, the instrumental harmony, and the glorious chorus of the united singing societies, are not events of every day occurrence among us. And after all these are over, a Volksfest or popular festival is promised at Friendship Grove, such as forms part of the usual life of the German people at home, but which has rarely been seen by persons who have not visited Germany. The novelty of this festival will doubtless attract many persons who would not attend a common picnic.

Unexcelled

Energy, tact and liberality, have been the means of elevating the Continental to a front rank among our popular and fashionable restaurants. Mr. Holtzheimer, the efficient proprietor, seems never to rest satisfied unless his establishment comes up to a certain ideal, which he has formed and which certainly stops not short of perfection. Certainly the patrons of this establishment have this fact before them in the manner and style with which it is conducted. No care or expense seems to be spared in the fitting up of the place, while the food spread upon the board daily is of a character fit for the daintiest. Under such management, and as a reward of merit, the Continental is worthy of that great success which has made the name so familiar.

Disposed of the Surplus.

Monday evening, under the influence of too frequent potations, or perhaps with the idea that he had a surplus of furniture in his dwelling, Louis Uirich proceeded to dispose of the useless articles in a summary manner, by smashing and throwing them into the street, and sundry other methods equally effectual. His idea, unfortunately, conflicted with those entertained by his wife, but she, being the weaker vessel, was compelled to adopt stragetic tactics to check the wholesale destruction of the furniture. She accordingly secured the services of one of the Mayor's police and had Louis locked up. He had a hearing last evening, and in default of bail was sent to jail, with a good prospect for a trip to Claremont.

Everything New.

One of the principal reasons of the success of Moorhead's establishment, No. 81 Market street, is the fact that the goods are always new, fresh and attractive. The patronage with which the store is favored is so large that the stock is rapidly closed out during the season and thus no old goods are found on the shelves, and room is provided for a new stock, always up to the latest demands of the trade. At present Mr. Moorhead has a large assortment of the newest styles in his line, to which the attention of the ladies is especially directed.

Pretty Women.—A comparatively few Ladies monopolize the Beauty as well as the attention of Society. This ought not to be so, but it is; and will be while men are foolish, and single out pretty faces for companions.

This can all be changed by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which gives the Bloom of Youth and a Refined sparkling Beauty to the Complexion, pleasing, powerful, and natural.

No Lady need complain of a red, tanned, freckeled or rustic Complexion who will invest 75 cents in Hagan's Magnolia Balm. Its effects are truly wonderful.
